Miner Named To SDCTCA Hall
SIOUX FALLS — Former Yankton High School coach Jim Miner has been named to the 2015 induction class for the South Dakota Cross Country and Track and Field Coaches Association Hall of Fame.
The induction ceremony will take place during the South Dakota Track and Field Clinic and SDCTFCA Convention, Saturday at 11:30 a.m. in the Sioux Falls National Guard Armory.
Miner coached and taught at YHS from 1965-1999, serving as head track and field coach from 1977 until his retirement. His teams won four girls' and three boys' state titles, as well as eight boys' and three girls' Eastern South Dakota Conference titles. He also won one ESD and one state title as a head football coach, in 1995.
Miner was inducted into the South Dakota High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1995, the Yankton High School Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005 and the NHSACA Hall of Fame in 2009.
Along with Miner and longtime Watertown coach Marv Sherrill, three individuals will be inducted post-humously: Mel Minton (Deadwood, Rapid City), Joe Quintal (Mitchell) and Andy Zepher (Flandreau Indian School).

USD's Larson Repeats As SL Player Of Week

ELMHURST, Ill. — South Dakota senior guard Tyler Larson earned his second consecutive Summit League Player of the Week award after leading the Coyotes to a pair of wins and into third place in the league standings.
Larson registered game highs of 21 points and 13 rebounds in Saturday's win against IUPUI. It was his league-leading 10th double-double of the season. Larson also had three assists and a steal without a turnover to push South Dakota (15-14) to its fourth consecutive win.
For the week, which included a non-conference win against Avila on Tuesday, Larson shot 50 percent from the field (11 of 22), 57 percent from beyond the arc (4 of 7) and made all seven free-throw attempts.

USD finishes the regular season with two games at home, facing Denver on Wednesday and South Dakota State on Saturday.

Herbster At QB Club

The Yankton Quarterback Club will hold its final meeting of the 2014-15 school year on Wednesday at noon at the Elks Lodge, 504 West 27th Street, Yankton.
This week's speaker is University of South Dakota athletic director David Herbster, who will talk about issues involving the athletic program, including their ongoing construction projects.
The public is invited to attend.

Bich, Nelson Named Co-Directors Of S.D. Senior Games

SIOUX FALLS — Howard Bich, formerly of Wagner, and Roger Nelson have been named the co-directors of the South Dakota Senior Games. They replace Al Weisbecker, who has served as executive director for the past 15 years.
Both Bich, a retired teacher and coach, and Nelson, a retired coach and referee, have been active in the South Dakota Senior Games the past 20 years, and have served as officers and board members for the state games.
Under Weisbecker, the Games have grown to offering 20 different sports for competition at 10 Regional Games within the State every year, and at the Annual State Games held in September of each year. The Senior Games (both Regional and the State Games) involve a large number of Senior Athletes who participate from South Dakota and surrounding States. Last year, the State Games in September had a record high of 618 participants ranging in ages from 50-101.

Bowlers Finish Third In Sioux Falls

SIOUX FALLS — A team comprised of boys' bowlers from the Yankton and Vermillion club high school teams finished third out of 14 teams in the Howie Kolhoff Tournament, held Feb. 16 at Eastway Bowl in Sioux Falls.
Yankton Buck bowlers Dylan Mace, Henry Borgstrom and Malan Moody joined with Kodie Lovejoy and Brett Hansen of the Vermillion Tanager team to win four matches before their defeat by eventual champion Sioux Falls Washington.

Huron Assistant Promoted To Head Coach

HURON — Michael Schmitz, who has served as assistant coach for the Huron High School football team the past two seasons, has been promoted to head coach, according to an announcement by Activities Director Terry Rotert. The selection was pending school board approval.
Schmitz, a 1997 graduate of Brandon Valley High School and a 2003 graduate of the University of Sioux Falls, has been at Huron the past two seasons. He has previously taught and coached at Aberdeen, Leola and Cheyenne-Eagle Butte. This will be his first head coaching position.
Schmitz was a two-year competitor in track and field at USF, earning all-conference honors. He was also a state placewinner in wrestling and track and field at Brandon Valley, and was a member of the 1995 Class AA runner-up team for the Lynx.
