Garnett A Winner In Emotional Return To Timberwolves

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Kevin Garnett made an emotional return to Minnesota with an ear-splitting reception and his Timberwolves overcame a littery start to beat the Washington Wizards 97-77 on Wednesday night.

Garnett, the face of the franchise who was reacquired in a trade from Brooklyn last week, had five points on 2-for-7 shooting with eight rebounds and two blocks in 19 minutes in his first game for the Timberwolves since 2007. Kevin Martin scored 28 points and Andrew Wiggins had 19 for the Wolves, who trailed by 15 early after Garnett's stirring reintroduction.

Marcin Gortat had nine points and 15 rebounds for the Wizards, who have lost five in a row and 10 of their last 12. John Wall had five points on 2-for-10 shooting and 10 assists, and Paul Pierce missed the game with a bruised knee.

Come meet days, the tandem has had a tendency to unleash some record-breaking performances.

Snyder leads the Summit League with a shot put mark of 61-21/4, which is a personal and school record. McKelvey ranks second at 60-5 1/4, which is a personal best.

Of the two, McKelvey boasts four league titles in his career, while Snyder has three individual championships — the first in the Great West Conference (2011).

the elder Snyder played a key role in McKelvey eventually signing with USD out of high school.

"We were very fortunate," Gottsleben said this week. "Had Cody not come, I'm not sure Kyle would be here.

"Obviously the rest is history, they say," the coach added.

While McKelvey was busy setting high school records as a senior at Beresford, Snyder came to USD and - after redshirting the indoor season - won the shot put title in the Great West.

"People were throwing 48-49 feet with a 16-pound shot,

"Now this consistency has been huge for me."

rived at USD, the throws program has continued to rise, due in large part to the addition of throws coach Tyler Custis

The Coyote men now boast freshman Dustin Valind, who ranks sixth in the shot put heading into this weekend's meet - along with four of the top six women's throwers. Not bad for a state that has high school track for three months a year, McKelvey said. 'And it's not just in the throws," he said. "It's all the way across the team. We don't have to go halfway across the country to recruit kids.

"We've got conference

Though McKelvey still has another year left (he'll redshirt the indoor season a year from now), the program has already discovered that life after the in-state tandem will be challenging.

"Unbelievable," Gottsleben said. "We're finding it hard to get a couple more guys like that anymore.

'You just don't replace kids like that. You do the best with what you can."

As far as this weekend's Summit League indoor meet is concerned, barring someone from another school (most likely North Dakota State) stepping up, the Coyote duo will go 1-2

"The first priority is to go one-two, and get those points

"It's doable, I think, but it'll take a good day," Snyder said.

And they've had plenty of those, separately and together.

"If this would have been my last go-around, it would have been unbelievable," McKelvey said.

"Four years, it's crazy, man.

While Sorenson has high hopes for the Watchdogs, he does not want to burden his wrestlers with where he thinks the team should finish.

"I don't want to put any added pressure on them. My expectation is top eight if we do that we'll have a good tournament." he said. "We have a lot of firsttimers and some tough weight classes.

Bon Homme-Scotland

With four returning placewinners — three of which won state titles — and a Region 3B title under their belts, the Bon Homme-Scotland wrestling program has high hopes of improving on the fifth place finish from its first season as a co-op.

Coach Mark Stoebner felt the season went from good to very good about a month ago.

"We really took off with the Wagner tournament," he said. "We won that, and the kids started believing.

Duncan Stoebner, an Augustana wrestling recruit, will be gunning for a third state title to finish his career. Stibral, a North Dakota State wrestling recruit, will be going for a second straight undefeated season after going 40-0 a year ago. 'It should be a fun race. Hopefully we are in the middle of it.

Parkston

The Parkston Trojans "survived" a tough Region 3B Tournament, finishing second to rival Bon Homme-Scotland and earning 10 berths in the state tournament. Now the Trojans look to keep that fighter's mentality going as it tries to win a third straight crown.
