Conrad Adam Fundraiser T-Shirts Available

Members of the Yankton boys' basketball basketball team and their families are helping to raise funds for Pierre

T.F. Riggs junior Conrad Adam. Adam was diagnosed with osteosarcoma in his left femur on August 1, 2012. Surgery in October required the amputation of his left leg above the knee, and he is now receiving proton radiation in Texas. Adam's CaringBridge site is http://www.caringbridge.org/visit/conradadam/createorsignin

Green t-shirts will be sold during the Yankton-Brookings boys' basketball game today (Saturday), and will be available for purchase through Jan. 8. Proceeds from the sale of the shirts will go to help defray medical expenses.

These shirts are to be worn on Saturday, Feb. 16, when the Pierre boys play in Yankton. Contact Karla Olson at 661-1012 or krolson@cedarwb.net for more information or to place an order.

SDSU Duo Earn Academic All-Star Honors

BROOKINGS — South Dakota State players Seth Daughters and Zach Zenner were named Thursday to the Football Championship Subdivision Athletic Directors Association Academic All-Star Team presented by KP Sports.

A senior tight end from Winner, Daughters earned a spot on the honor squad with a 3.72 grade-point average while majoring in exercise science. During the 2012 season, Daughters caught 17 passes for 134 yards with three touchdowns. A team captain, he earned a spot on the Missouri Valley Football Conference All-Academic Second Team in 2012.

Zenner, a sophomore running back from Eagan, Minn., made the all-academic team with a 3.78 GPA while majoring in biology/pre-medicine. Previously selected as a member of the Capital One Academic All-Ámerica Second Team, Zenner leads the FCS ranks with an average of 157.2 yards per game. He posted a Division I-best 2,044 yards this season in earning a spot on four different All-America teams.

Zenner also was one of three Jackrabbits honored on the inaugural College Sports Journal FCS All-Academic Team. Joining him on the 42-player team were junior offensive lineman Taylor Suess and sophomore wide receiver/puntreturner Jason Schneider. Both members of the Capital One Academic All-District Team earlier this season, Suess carries a 3.95 GPA in mechanical engineering, while Schneider has compiled a 3.98 GPA while majoring in pre-pharmacy.

SDSU Teams Post 3.21 GPA

BROOKINGS — South Dakota State University student-athletes turned in another successful term in the classroom, finishing the recently completed fall semester with a collective 3.21 grade-point average.

Individually, 68 percent of Jackrabbit student-athletes posted a GPA of 3.0 or higher during the fall semester. Of that group, 134 carried a GPA of 3.5 to 3.99, with 22 recording a perfect 4.0 GPA.

The women's basketball squad recorded the highest team GPA for the semester at 3.67, followed by the men's tennis team at 3.58.
