Library Offers Classes On Facebook, Pinterest

The Yankton Community Library, 515 Walnut, will offer a "Facebook for Beginners" class on Tuesday, Jan. 22. This class will go over the basics of setting up a Facebook account and utilizing some of its key features such as connecting with friends, photo sharing, and using Facebook chat. On Tuesday, Jan. 29, the library will offer a "Pinterest for Beginners" class. This class will go over the basics of setting up a Pinterest account and using the key features of repining items, creating boards, and pin etiquette. Both classes will run from 6:30-8 p.m. and are free of charge. Because each class is limited to 15 participants, we ask that you call the library or register in person at the circulation desk one day prior to each class. Children under 18 must be accompanied by their parent/guardian. Participants are encouraged to bring personal laptops to the session. For more information, contact the library at 668-5275.

DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

School

According to the RFP document, the school board intends to make a decision regarding engagement of a firm no later than Feb. 11. Specht added that regardless of the assistance it uses in its search, the school district intends to make an offer for the superintendent position by May 31, but it could do so much earlier. "We'd like to have someone confirmed and ready to go sooner rather than later," he said. "But it's going to depend on the candidate, it's going to depend upon schedules — a lot of things." 75 YEARS AGO

Saturday, January 8, 1938
 • A safe driving picture, "The Wheel of Change", which has been shown before a number of groups and organizations and has awakened general interest and approval will be given free public showing at the show rooms of the E. P. Fitzgerald Motor company tonight.
 • Yesterday was John Deere day in Yankton and about 1,000 farmers from this trade territory took lunch at the W. H. Baggs Implement house on Third street from 11:30 to 12:30 and attended the moving picture show at the Moon theatre where four pictures were shown.

50 YEARS AGO

Tuesday, January 8, 1963
 • A resolution passed by a group of representatives from the five communities around the Niobrara river asked Congress to authorize the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers to make a study of the possibilities of modifying the existing Gavins Point project by including integrally related multiple-purpose improvements on the lower Niobrara.
 • Getting terrific rebounding from Ray Schultz and Jim Gullickson, the Freeman Flyers of Coach Darrell Weiland dumped the Avon Pirates, 58 to 44, here (Avon) last night. It was a non-conference game.

25 YEARS AGO

Friday, January 8, 1988
 • Production and employment growth are expected at TCI Power Products of Yankton under the direction of the Gehl Company. Gehl announced the purchase of TCI assets at a news conference Thursday in Yankton.
 • Many Democratic state lawmakers would like to ban non-family corporate hog farms in South Dakota, but Republican lawmakers are more reluctant to put limits on such corporate farms.

Thank You

Thank you to all who attended our 50th anniversary celebration. It was great fun seeing everyone; some who we haven't seen for a long time. Thanks for taking the time and traveling the miles. Thanks for all the beautiful cards, flowers and gifts. A special thanks to our family who made us feel so blessed to have them in our lives.
