SIOUX FALLS — The 22nd annual South Dakota Football Coaches Association winter football clinic will be held Jan. 25-26 at the Army National Guard Armory, 801 W. National Guard Drive in Sioux Falls.

Featured speaker will be former Vermillion High School and NFL linebacker Ben Leber, who will speak on the evening of Jan. 25. Other speakers on the opening day will include USD offensive line coach Brett Harvey, SDSÚ defensive line coach Jesse Currier and former Flandreau coach Tiger McGlone. Highlight of the second day will be the SDFBCA Hall of Fame induction banquet at 12:30 p.m. Hall of Fame inductees include former Viborg-Hurley coach John Nyhaug, as well as Steve Rice of Lead-Deadwood and Dan Whalen of Pierre. Speakers for the second day include Chicago (III.) Main HS coach Charlie Bliss, Sioux Falls Storm coach Kurtiss Riggs, Sanford's Dale Schlimgen and S.D. prep coaches Brent Mutchelknaus (Irene-Wakonda), Brandon White (Harrisburg), Chad Stadem (Flandreau) and Jeff Van Leur (Bridgewater-Fmery-Fthan). There is a cost to attend, payable at the door. For more information, contact Virg Polak at 605-321-4908. USD's Mettler Earns Indoor

Track Athlete Of Week Honors VERMILLION — Junior distance runner Jeff Mettler was named Indoor Track Athlete of the Week by the Summit League on Tuesday. It's the first time a member of the Covote men's team has earned the honor. Mettler placed second in the 3000-meters at Saturday's Jack Johnson Invitational, finishing with a league-best time of 8:20.82. The time was 16th-best in Division I this season. He was the top collegiate finisher in the event, and was five seconds off the indoor record of 8:15.46 he set
