USD Sets Three School Records At Home Opener

VERMILLION — Megan Glisar set a new USD record in the women's high jump. Bethany Buell broke the USD women's indoor pole vault record and Cody Snyder shattered the USD men's indoor shot put record at the Bill Hillenbrand Alumni Track Meet at the DakotaDome on Saturday.

Glisar jumped a 5-9 3/4 mark to win the high jump. Her mark broke the record of 5-9 1/4 set by Tonya Kneifl in 2001. Glisar tied that record at the Jack Johnson Invitational on Jan. 19.

Buell won the pole vault with a 13-10 mark, which topped the old record of 13-7 1/4 that Buell set in 2011 and teammate Emily Grove tied last season. The mark also raised the women's DakotaDome record by over four inches. Buell was followed in final results by teammates Madison Mills in second (12-11 1/2) and Grove, who competed unattached, in third (12-11 1/2).

Snyder (Lake Andes) upped the indoor shot put record by two feet with a throw of 58-4 3/4. The throw broke the record set by Steve Schmidt in 2000 (56-4 1/4).

Outside those three, the Coyotes won 11 other events and had several other top-three performances. Michael Burrus won the men's 60-meter dash in 6.89 with Christian Nielsen placing second in 7.05 and Brandon Kovash in fourth at 7.14. Nielsen would later win the 200-meter dash in 22.07.

South Dakota swept the 60-meter hurdles with Tansha Clarke winning the women's race in 9.12 and Erik Hill winning the men's race in 8.23. Kevin Sarenkhani followed Hill in second with a time of 8.38.

The Coyotes almost swept the top five positions in both 3,000-meter races. Kristin Steffen (Crofton, Neb.) won the women's race in 10:22.82 and led the women to sweep the top-six positions. Isaac Allen won the men's race in 8:41.56 and led the men to finish four in the top five.

In the 400-meters, Jeff O'Connell won with a time of 51.08 and Lukas Bernard finished third in 51.57. O'Connell also won the long jump with a leap of 22-10.

In field events, Kyle Ballew won the men's pole vault with a 17-0 3/4 mark and Peter Chapman was second at 15-11. Cody Linder added a

WAGNER — Fifteen area high school wrestling teams competed in the 2013 Wagner Invitational Wrestling tournament on Saturday at Wagner High School, and as expected, the Parkston Trojans came out on top.

Parkston kept its winning ways rolling with a dominant first place performance at the tournament. The Trojans placed 14 wrestlers.

The Trojans boasted an overall score of 257. The closest team to Parkston, Tri-Valley posted 168 points. Four Trojans finished first, while two were awarded second.

"I felt like it was just another tournament for us," Parkston head coach Jared Dingmann said. "There are some pretty good wrestlers here that will be at the state tournament coming up. We made some good steps to get to our ultimate goal. We need everyone to be on their top performance all the time."

Trojan Austin Bertram pummeled Stanley County's Cade Larsen in 3:43 seconds in the 285 pound bout. With his winnings, Bertram was able to collect his 30th win of the season.

In the 220 weight class, Parkston's Brady Reiff continued his search for an undefeated season. He toppled Beresford's Derek Wiebers in the finale. Reiff added three wins to his total, making his overall record a respectable 31-0 on the season.

"I don't really think about being undefeated," Reiff said. "I just do what has to be done for this team."

In the 145 pound bou, Weslee Dvorak of Parkston toppled Flan-dreau's Jace Christiansen in 8:28. Dvorak also handed Christiansen his second loss of the season.

"This was a pretty big win to be at the top of my bracket," Dvorak said. "I just wanted to get out there and win. It just let's me see where I am at right now. My mind is already racing on what I need to do the rest of the year."

In the 113 championship, Parkston's Blake Bietz defeated Beres-

Fifteen of the top Class B wrestling squads in the state met up in Wagner on Saturday for the Wagner Invitational. Parkston ran away with the team title in the event.

ABOVE: Parkston's Brady Reiff scores a 31-second pin on Beresford's Derek Wiebers in the 220-pound championship of the Wagner Invitational wrestling tournament on Saturday. Reiff remains unbeaten at 31-0 on the season after scoring three pins in a total of 83 seconds.
