

Augustana's North Ranked First In Region

SIOUX FALLS — TJ North takes over the top spot and leads six Augustana wrestlers to top-eight rankings in the Super Region 3 rankings. Augustana's 10 wrestlers also improved their standings in the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference rankings, placing six in the top four.

North jumped two spots in the Super Region 3 rankings to become the new No. 1 in the 125-pound class. North, a sophomore from Elk Point, owns a 15-3 record with his only three losses coming to Division I opponents. North also overtook the top spot in the NSIC rankings after appearing in the past two releases at second.

4-H, YAIA Raising Funds For New Kitchen

The Yankton County 4-H and Yankton Area Ice Association are two organizations that impact hundreds of kids every year in the Yankton and surrounding communities. Both of these organizations rely on sales from their concession stand to continue funding their programs and to provide opportunities for their participants.

Currently, Yankton County 4-H and Yankton Area Ice Association are using a kitchen facility that is severely outdated. Along with generous partners in the Yankton community and money raised from this fundraiser, it is hoped that the organizations can rebuild a kitchen that is up to quality standards, so that they can successfully continue to provide a safe place for our youth to grow and develop their skills.

The organizations are partnering with Schwan's Home Services to meet our current fundraising goals. Schwan's Home Delivery offers more than 350 foods, flash-frozen at their peak of freshness and conveniently delivered to your door. Through Schwans-Cares.com, consumers can order from Schwan's Home Delivery.

During the campaign, which runs through Jan. 19, 20 percent of product and 40 percent of e-certificate sales will go back to the organization. In addition, Schwan's will contribute 5 percent of all orders to our organization for the rest of the year.

For more information on this fundraiser and how you can help, visit www.yanktonice.org and click on the Schwan's logo in the image box on the front page or visit Schwans-cares.com and enter Yankton Area Ice into the search box.

Free Kayaking Course Jan. 18

Members of the South Dakota Canoe & Kayak Association are offering a free "Give Kayaks a Try" event from 10:15 a.m.-12:45 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 18 in the YHS/Summit Activities Center swimming pool.

The event is free, but it's open only to the first 14 people who sign up. A waiting list also is available. Participants should dress to "get wet" and can use the locker rooms at the SAC to change clothes.

This event will give participants a chance to see what kayaks feel like on the water in a controlled setting with no mud, sand or current. Paddlers will learn basic equipment and kayak nomenclature before getting into the cockpit.

While free-form the event will offer some basic instruction (provided by SDCKA members) on:

- Entry and exit
- Paddling strokes

- Kayak "feel"
- Wet exits

• Straight-forward self-rescue and assisted-rescue methods.

Call organizer Jarett C. Bies at 605-941-4940 for more information.
