Yes, it has only been five games. But when was the last time there was this much excitement for the Yankton Bucks boys' basketball team? At 3-2, the Bucks are already well on their way to breaking last season's 6-win campaign — heck, they'll likely win as many games as the last two seasons combined (10). Watching Yankton demolish Brookings by 26 in Tuesday night's victory at the Summit Center, and watching the crowd react to explosive play after explosive play, you couldn't help but wonder, 'Just how good is this team?' Well, let's take a look: • Yankton has not one, not two, but three legitimate scoring threats. The return of senior J.J. Hejna (17 ppg) along with junior Brady Hale (17.6) and sophomore Reid Sawatzke (13.4) will make the Bucks a tremendously tough 'out' for the post-season.

Stevens' Gorman Earns Gatorade Honor

CHICAGO — In its 29th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, announced Tamara Gorman of Stevens High School as its 2013-14 Gatorade South Dakota Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year. Gorman is the first Gatorade South Dakota Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year to be chosen from Stevens High School. The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the racetrack, distinguishes Gorman as South Dakota's best high school girls cross country runner. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year award to be announced in January, Gorman joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Ryan Hall (1999-00, 2000-01, Big Bear HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.). The 5-foot-8 senior captured first place at the 2013 ITU Junior Triathlon World Championship in London, logging a time of 57:08 and becoming the first ever U.S. female to earn a gold medal at the competition. The state's two-time returning Gatorade Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year, Gorman was the fastest South Dakota runner at the 2013 Nike Cross Nationals Heartland Regional championships, earning ninth place in 18:05.7. She was also the runner-up at the Class AA state meet, crossing the line in 14:24.81.

Gorman has maintained a 3.25 GPA in the classroom. She has volunteered locally on behalf of the Special Olympics, as a Rapid City Racers swim team coach and as an elementary school tutor.

Gorman remains undecided upon a collegiate destination.

Three-time winner Gorman joins Gatorade South Dakota Girls Cross Country Runners of the Year Alex Hess (2011-12, Roosevelt High School), Madeleine Takahashi (2009-10, Sturgis Brown), Seanna Kautz (2008-09, Roosevelt), and Mariah Hofer (2007-08, Yankton) as athletes who have won the cross country award since its inception in 2007.

SDSU Stadium Meetings Set

BROOKINGS — South Dakota State University Director of Athletics Justin Sell will host a pair of town hall meetings next week to provide updates on a proposed on-campus football stadium. The first town hall meeting is scheduled for noon on Monday, Jan. 13, on campus at the Volstorff Ballroom in the University Student Union. A second town hall meeting is scheduled for 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 15, at the McCrory Gardens Education and Visitor Center in Brookings.

Both meetings are open to the campus community and general public.

The proposed stadium, which would be constructed on the current Coughlin-Alumni Stadium site, would seat between 18,500 and 20,000 spectators and cost an estimated $60-65 million. Plans call for the stadium to be funded through private gifts and long-term revenue streams, including concessions and suite, loge box and ticket sales. The intention is to secure bonds to finance up to two-thirds of the project's construction, with the remaining third coming from private support. Lead gifts totaling $12.5 million from Sioux Falls banker Dana Dykhouse and philanthropist T. Denny Sanford were announced in October.

A facility program plan was endorsed by the South Dakota Board of Regents in late November, and will be up for approval in the South Dakota Legislature during the upcoming session. If approved, construction on the east and south sides of the stadium would take place in 2015, with completion of the project scheduled for the summer of 2016.

Bohl Brings Six Assistants From NDSU To Wyoming

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — New Wyoming football coach Craig Bohl is bringing six assistants from his former job at North Dakota State and retaining one from the Wyoming staff. Bohl said Wednesday that Pete Kaligs, Wyoming's offensive line and running backs coach, will remain as defensive line coach. Assistants coming with Bohl from North Dakota State are Brent Vigen, Steve Stanard, Kenny Burns, AJ Cooper, Scott Fuchs and John Richardson. Vigen will be offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and Stanard will be defense coordinator and linebackers coach. Burns will be wide receivers coach, Fuchs will be offensive line coach and Richardson will be cornerbacks coach. Cooper will be defensive ends coach and special teams coordinator. Two coaching positions remain open, one for safeties and one for running backs, fullbacks and tight ends.
