PHOTO: DAKOTA TERRITORIAL MUSEUM

Thanks to the recent cold snap and the holidays, things have been a little slow at the Mead Building. While working around the second floor balcony, the workers uncovered the rest of this beautiful stencil work (pictured above). Work has been progressing nicely on the construction of the storm windows. If you are interested in helping with the Mead Building project, please let us know. We have many avenues of support for you to get involved with — everything from purchasing windows for naming rights to a tool and supply wish list created by our project manager. Contact the museum for more information, or if you have questions about the Mead Project. The Dakota Territorial Museum is located at 610 Summit Street (in Westside Park), and we are on Facebook. Museum hours are noon-4 p.m. seven days a week.
