Wragge took all of six shots this season inside the 3-point arc, and with good reason. He's rarely missed from long range.

Against Villanova, the 49percent 3-point shooter didn't miss at all, at least on his first seven attempts. His seventh 3 put the Bluejays up 27-8 just 7 1/2 minutes into the game. With McDermott running into double teams, Wragge was all alone, even hitting one in front of Villanova's bench without a defender within 2 feet of him. Even with the hot hand. Wragge hit the bench for a spell — maybe he had a tired arm — to rest up from all those 3s.

ended a five-game losing streak, survived after squandering a 14-point first-half lead. They used a 16-5 run late in the second half to regain control and made 13 of their last 16 free throws to hold off the Buckeyes (15-4, 2-4). It was Nebraska's first win in 16 games against ranked opponents and prompted the student sec-tion to pour onto the court after the final buzzer. The Buckeyes have lost four straight for the first time since 2007-08
