Mead Update

PHOTOS: LOIS VARVEL

Lois Varvel has shared this postcard of the Mead Dining Room. The postcard was addressed to a Miss Lillian Ericson in Denver and is postmarked Sep. 23, 1916. The message (below) reads: "The newest and best building here, and it is a beauty. I am about as contented as I could be, and I hope everything is well with you. Be careful of that disposition. Regards to Mrs. McVey." This is just one of the many treasures of the Mead Building's past. If you are interested in helping with the Mead Building project, please let us know. We have many avenues of support for you to get involved with — everything from purchasing windows for naming rights to a tool and supply wish list created by our project manager. Please contact the museum for more information, online at dakotaterritorialmuseum.org, or if you have questions about the Mead Project. The Dakota Territorial Museum is located at 610 Summit Street (in Westside Park), and we are on Facebook. Museum hours are noon-4 p.m. seven days a week.
