Wyoming Prep Standout Signs With MMC

Casper, Wyoming, standout Tyler Olsen has committed to attending Mount Marty College and playing men's basketball for the Lancers, the institution announced on Tuesday.

Olsen

The Glenrock High School standout is averaging 15 points, three rebounds, four assists and two steals per game. A two-time all-region player, he led Glenrock to a state runner-up finish in Class 3A. He currently leads the state of Wyoming in both three-point attempts and three-point percentage.

"Tyler is a great addition to our program. He is an absolute gym rat and loves putting in the work to get better and push his teammates to do the same," said MMC men's basketball coach Andrew Baker. "He comes from a great program and plays for a great coach, Rich Milay. Tyler also possesses the intangible attributes that we look for in our guys like selflessness and a tireless work ethic."

Olsen, the son of Brian Olsen, is undecided on a major. He will receive a MMC Academic Merit Scholarship as well as a Basketball Scholarship at Mount Marty College.

USD's McKelvey Honored By Summit League

ELMHURST, Ill. — South Dakota senior Kyle McKelvey has been named the Summit League Men's Indoor Track and Field Athlete of the Week for the period ended Jan. 18, as released by the Summit League on Tuesday.

McKelvey receives his first career Athlete of the Week honor after leading the South Dakota men at the Holiday Inn Invitational in Lincoln, Neb. The Beresford native tossed a new career best of 59-5.75 in the indoor shot put. The throw tops the Summit League by two feet and is tied for 22nd in Division I.

McKelvey and the Coyotes return to action Saturday Jan. 24 at South Dakota State's Jim Emmerich Alumni Invitational in Brookings.

Irene Native Headed Into S.D. Golf Hall

SIOUX FALLS — Irene native and former University of South Dakota golfer Coralee Jorgensen, currently of Sioux Falls, is one of six individuals who will be inducted into the South Dakota Golf Association Hall of Fame. The induction class was announced on Tuesday. The induction ceremony will take place this summer.

Jorgensen is currently the Executive Director of The First Tee of South Dakota, a position she took in 2013 after serving as the head golf professional from 2001 at Westward Ho Country Club in Sioux Falls (now The Country Club of Sioux Falls). She has been recognized by Golf Digest as the Best Teacher in South Dakota, previously served as the PGA advisor to the SDGA board of directors and has been elected into the President's Council for the PGA of America.

A standout high school and college golfer, Jorgensen was the Class B state champion for Irene High School in 1978 and the runner-up a year earlier. At the University of South Dakota, where she served as team captain from 1979-81, she led USD to the AIAW state title and was also the 1980 AIAW regional medalist.

She was an assistant at Westward Ho CC from 1983-87 and was also an assistant professional at Oswego Lake Country Club in Lake Oswego, Oregon from 1987 to 1998.

Also selected for induction were Alan Cooke of Sioux Falls, Jay and Jane Huizenga of Sioux Falls, the late Doris Mernaugh of Watertown and the late Alice Bauer of Aberdeen.

USD Swimmers, Diver Honored By Summit League

ELMHURST, Ill. — The University of South Dakota dominated Summit League honors in the pool this week, sweeping swimming honors and seeing another honor for sophomore diver Greyson Hertling.

Hertling earned her 18th career diving honor, including her eighth this season. She collected four wins over a two-day double dual versus Western Illinois and Eastern Illinois. Friday, she notched a new school record of 301.50 in the three-meter dive and added a score of 265.13 in the one-meter. Saturday she repeated her wins in both dives, taking the three-meter in 264.98 and the one-meter in 277.51.

Colin Krysl and Katie Svendsen swept swimming honors.

Krysl earned his second career Swimmer of the Week award and first this season after contributing to two Coyotes' victories over the weekend. The senior captured seven events over the course of a two-day dual versus Western Illinois and Eastern Illinois. Krysl began by winning the 100-yard butterfly in 52.34 seconds, 200-yard IM in 2:00.34, and 400-medley relay on Friday. Returning on Saturday, Krysl took three individual events and one relay. He touched in at 50.48 in the 100-yard fly, 1:55.13 in the 200-yard fly, 4:16 in the 400 IM and 1:36.89 in the 200-yard medley.

Svendsen collects her first Summit League Swimmer of the Week award of her young career after leading her team to a pair of wins over league competition. The freshman finished first in the four individual events in which she competed. She touched first in the 200 free (1:59.32), 500 free twice (5:20.15, 5:17.09) and the 1000 yard free (10:56.87). She was also a key ingredient in third-place finish in the 400 medley relay.

Wayne State Softball Camps Feb. 7-8

WAYNE, Neb. — The Wayne State College softball program will be hosting a hitting clinic on Saturday, February 7 and a pitching/catching clinic on Sunday, February 8 in the WSC Recreation Center.

The hitting camp will feature demonstrations by Wildcat players along with tips and drills to further develop your hitting skills. The pitching/catching camp will include demonstrations from WSC softball players featuring mechanics, location, leg drive and other drills and tips to further develop pitching skill and speed.

Check-in for each camp is from 8:30 – 9 a.m. with the camp running from 9:15 a.m. – 12 p.m. All athletes should come dressed for participation. It is recommended that you bring tennis/turf shoes and water. All players must provide their own bat and pitchers must provide their own catcher for the pitching camp.

There is a cost to participate. For more information on the hitting and pitching camps, contact WSC head softball coach Shelli Manson at 402-375-7227 or email shmanso1@wsc.edu. Camp registration forms can be on the WSC softball website by logging onto www.wscsoftballcamps.com.

SDSU's Zenner, Wieneke Honored

CHICAGO — South Dakota State University of-fense record-setters Jake Wieneke and Zach Zenner have been named to the College Sporting News 2014 Fabulous Fifty FCS All-America Team. Wieneke also was named Freshman of the Year by the organization.

Wieneke, a redshirt freshman from Maple

Grove, Minnesota, burst onto the scene by averaging 19.7 yards every time he touched the ball in 2014. Previously the runner-up for the Jerry Rice Award, Wieneke tallied 73 receptions for 1,404 yards and 16 touchdowns through the air while adding 52 rushing yards. His reception and receiving yard totals were the second most in a season in school history, while his 16 touchdowns set a new SDSU single-season mark and tied the Missouri Valley Football Conference record.

Wieneke also was an All-America selection by The Associated Press and The Sports Network in 2014.

A consensus All-America selection, Zenner became the first player in Division I history to reach the 2,000-yard mark in three consecutive seasons, finishing the 2014 season with 2,019 yards and 22 rushing touchdowns. A senior from Eagan, Minnesota, Zenner added 28 receptions for 331 yards and 7 touchdowns. He was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game earlier this month.

The FCS Fabulous Fifty honor was the sixth All-America selection of the season for Zenner, who also earned first-team recognition from the American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Sports Network, Associated Press and the FCS Athletic Directors Association.

Rooftop Owners Sue Cubs Over Wrigley Renovations

CHICAGO (AP) — The owners of two rooftop businesses overlooking Wrigley Field are suing the Chicago Cubs and owner Tom Ricketts to try to block plans to erect outfield signs.

The federal lawsuit filed Tuesday accuses the Cubs of breaching the terms of the team's revenue-sharing contract with rooftop owners. The suit contends the team and Ricketts are engaging in deceptive business practices and acting in violation of anti-trust laws.

The rooftop owners are seeking a financial judgment and a ruling barring the Cubs from blocking views into Wrigley from the rooftops.

Cubs attorney Andrew Kassof says the team will contest the lawsuit and move forward with renovations.

The demolition of the ballpark's famous bleachers is underway. The work is part of the Cubs' privately funded $575 million renovation project.
