MMC Choirs to Perform At Conference

SIOUX FALLS — The Mount Marty College Chamber Choir and Smooth Benediction will perform at the South Dakota American Choral Directors Association's annual Winter Conference. The performance will be at First Lutheran Church in Sioux Falls on Jan. 23 at 8:45 p.m. The Singing Boys of Sioux Falls, the SDSU Statesmen and the choir from Armour High School will precede their performance.

"This is an honor for the Mount Marty College Music Department and for our hardworking students in these ensembles," states Dr. Kenneth Tice, director of Choral Activities and Chair of the MMC Music Department. "This will be an opportunity for Mount Marty College to reintroduce our choral music program to so many of the choral educators in our state who may have not heard our choral groups in recent time."

A reception for the Mount Marty College choir, alumni, family and friends will be held in the Gathering Room (inside the canopied entrance: take a left at the first ramp) at First Lutheran Church from 6-8:30 p.m., before the performance.

DRIVER LICENSE EXAMS

Here is the monthly schedule for area driver's license examinations in the area. File application at least one hour in advance of scheduled closing hours if you wish to complete examination on the same day. For more information, call (800) 952-3696 or visit www.state.sd.us/dps/dl

Federal regulations require anyone applying for a new, renewal or duplicate driver license or identification card to provide the documents listed below (photo copies are not acceptable):

- ONE of the following to prove identity, date of birth, and lawful status: Certified U.S. birth certificate issued by county or state (no hospital birth-certificates); valid unexpired U.S. passport; Certificate of Naturalization; Certificate of Citizenship; valid unexpired permanent resident card; valid unexpired employment authorization document; foreign passport with valid unexpired U.S. Visa with I-94

If your name is different than the name on your identity document, you will need to bring additional proof of your legal name. Acceptable documents for proof of legal name change are a certified marriage certificate (issued by a state vital records agency), a certified adoption document, or a certified court order authorizing a name change (such as a divorce decree). If you have had multiple marriages, you will need to bring similar documents providing legal proof of each name change. The examiners must be able to trace from your birth name to your current name.

- ONE document to prove your Social Security number: Social Security card, W-2 Form, SSA 1099 Form, Non-SSA 1099 Form, pay stub (must include name and Social Security number). The regulations do not allow personnel to accept any other document as proof of Social Security number.
- TWO documents to prove your residential address. A parent's proof of address is acceptable for a minor child. Bring two of the documents listed here (each must contain your current address): Utility bill, credit card statement, pay stub or earnings statement, rent receipt, phone bill, transcript or report card from accredited school, bank statement, mortgage document, tax document, homeowners/renter's insurance policy. Other items will be reviewed by licensing personnel. PO Box addresses are acceptable in areas not assigned street or 911 addresses. In South Dakota, if you are unable to provide proof of residency, visit www.dps.sd.gov or call 1-800-952-3696.

NOTE: In South Dakota, application must be submitted at least one hour in advance of scheduled closing time. No drive tests will be given from 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

AgriVisions 2015 Set For Yankton Jan. 26

First Dakota National Bank will host AgriVisions 2015 featuring Dr. Brent Gloy on Monday, Jan. 26, at Best Western Kelly Inn, 1607 East Highway 50, Yankton, at 7 p.m. Farmers, Agri-Business professionals and business owners are invited to attend.

Dr. Brent Gloy is the founding Director of Purdue Center for Commercial Agriculture and co-founder of Ag Economic Insights — www.ageconomists.com. After many years of high commodity prices with strong profitability, the landscape in the row-crop sector has shifted dramatically. Dr. Gloy will provide a short and long-term economic perspective and strategies to position for long-term success. Dr. Gloy is an agricultural economist specializing in agricultural finance and agribusiness management. The majority of his research has focused on issues related to the supply and demand for credit and farmland values. Dr. Gloy has held tenured faculty positions in agricultural economics at Purdue University and Cornell University. He is currently operating his family farming operation in southwest Nebraska. Dr. Gloy received his masters and doctorate degrees in agricultural economics from Purdue University and his undergraduate degree from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Nate Franzen, First Dakota's Agri-Business Division President, states, "Mark Monday, Jan. 26, on your calendar and plan to attend AgriVisions 2015. Dr. Brent Gloy is a highly respected and accomplished Ag Economist who is now an Ag producer like many of you. Come find out why he left a tenured P.H.D. position to take over the family farm at a time when grain prices were plummeting. His extensive knowledge and understanding of the agriculture industry will enlighten and entertain. Plan to join us at AgriVisions 2015."

AgriVisions 2015 begins with registration from 6:30-7 p.m. and Dr. Gloy's presentation at 7 p.m. An ice cream social will follow the presentation. Call 605-665-4904 or 800-657-5826 to reserve a seat.

Farmers Union To Hold Meeting

The Yankton County Farmers Union will hold its monthly meeting at Sunrise Apartments, 2015 Green St., Yankton, at 7 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 22.

This will be a business meeting. The agenda includes the election of officers and delegates to the state and national convention. Also, Tyler Novak will report on camps, Torchbearer and the state convention.

Everyone is welcome. For more information, call Al Novak at 661-7667.

Elks Lodge Awards Six Scholarships

Yankton Elks lodge No. 994 has awarded scholarships to six high school seniors.

The local lodge awards $300 to each student, and those six students have been advanced to the state and national levels for additional scholarship opportunities. Selections are made based on leadership abilities, classroom performance and financial need.

The local scholarships were awarded to the following scholars: Joshua Goeden, Crofton, Nebraska; Alex Hollman, Verdigre, Nebraska; Sawyer Schmitz, Scotland; Jaclyn Arens, Yankton; Katherine Giorgio, Elk Point; and Johanna Lippert, Yankton.

You can learn more about the scholarship program by visiting <http://www.elks.org/enf/scholars/mvs.cfm/>.

Sacred Heart To Hold Open House

Yankton's Sacred Heart School will hold an Open House for Preschool, Jr. Kindergarten and Kindergarten students on Tuesday, Jan. 27, from 5:30-7 p.m. (snow date Jan. 29). The Open House will be held in the St. Benedict Dining Room and Sacred Heart Elementary at 1500 St. Benedict Drive.

Dinner will be provided at 5:30 with presentation and tours to follow.

Come hear about what Sacred Heart School has to offer you and your child as they begin a faith filled educational journey. Sacred Heart School provides small class sizes with individualized instruction providing a strong academic foundation.

If you are unable to attend the above date, call to set up a meeting with Mrs. Haberman.
 RSVP to Mrs. Rockneat 665-5841.

Summit Activities Center To Offer Water Safety Instructors Course

The Summit Activities Center will be offering a Water Safety Instructor's Course in April. Pre-test will be held March 31. Attendance is mandatory for all sessions. Participants will need to be prepared for time in the classroom and pool each day. Class space is limited.

Registration is available by calling 605-668-5234 or stopping by the Summit Activities Center between 8 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays.

Payment for the training is due at the time of registration. The payment will include WSI manual and books. There is an online portion of the class and participants will be required to do online learning prior to and throughout class. Registration and a payment is also required with Red Cross, but instructions for this will be given once the pre-test has been passed.

Participants must be at least 16 years of age before the class ends. Participants must also successfully swim the following strokes: Freestyle, Backstroke, Elementary Backstroke, Breaststroke and Butterfly at Level 4.
