UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA

VERMILLION — Students at the University of South Dakota have been honored for their academic success during the 2014 Fall Semester.

USD students achieving Dean's List honors total 1,868 students while 456 part-time students have been cited with Academic Recognition honors.

Students earn Dean's List distinction by achieving a GPA of at least 3.5 while maintaining a course load of 12 or more credit hours with no incomplete or failing grades. Part-time students are eligible for Academic Recognition by completing at least 12 hours prior to the current semester earning a minimum of three and up to 11 credit hours during the term and achieving a GPA of at least 3.5 with no failing or incomplete grades.

Additionally, 12 students enrolled at the University of South Dakota School of Law attained Dean's List recognition. To be named to the School of Law Dean's List, law students must achieve either a GPA of 85.00 or greater for that semester or rate in the top 10 percent of their class for that semester, whichever group is smaller. The list is not based on cumulative grade point average, and first semester, first-year law students are not eligible for the law school's Dean's List.

The South Dakota Board of Regents sets the policy for Dean's List eligibility. For more information on the Board of Regents policy, see www.ris.sdbor.edu/policy/2-Academic_Affairs/documents/2-10.pdf
