NDSU Wins Fourth Straight FCS Title

(285) won titles for Bon

FRISCO, Texas (AP) -Make that four straight in Texas for North Dakota State.

Quarterback Carson Wentz ran 5 yards for the winning touchdown about a minute after Tre Roberson's 58-yard run put Illinois State ahead, and the Bison became the first team to win four straight FCS championships with a thrilling 29-27 victory Saturday.

North Dakota State (15-1) lost a nine-point lead in the fourth quarter, but answered quickly after falling behind. RJ Urzendowski had catches of 32 and 33 yards to get the Bison in scoring range, and Wentz broke a tackle around the 5 and eased into the end zone for the lead with 37 seconds left.

Roberson threw three touchdown passes, but also an interception to Esley Thorton in the final seconds trying to get the Redbirds (13-2)in field goal range.

It looked as if the Bison would finally have a disappointing trip to the professional soccer stadium north of Dallas that has become their second home when Roberson faked a handoff to 2.000-vard rusher Marshaun Coprich, went to his left and cut upfield on the midfield logo. He ran untouched to the end zone.

A failed 2-point conversion left the Redbirds with a 27-23 lead with 1:38 remaining.

Wentz hit Urzendowski on a crossing route for 32 yards on the first play of the next drive, and later unloaded the ball deep with pressure coming when Urzendowski found the ball while safety DraShane Glass never looked back for the throw inside the 10. Wentz scored on the next play, to the delight of yet another mostly green- and yellow-clad crowd.

The Bison won a de facto Missouri Valley Conference title game between league cochampions that didn't play in the regular season — the first time two conference teams have played for the FCS crown.

Wentz led a rally that added a title a year after predecessor Brock Jensen set an FCS record for quarterbacks with 48 victories.

North Dakota safety Christian Dudzik had five tackles in his 61st start, believed to be a first for a Division I player, to highlight a senior class that had more national titles (four) than losses (58-3 record). Appalachian State is the only other FCS team to win three straight titles.

Wentz, already the school record-holder for yards passing in a season, threw for 237 yards and a touchdown and had 87 yards rushing.

Roberson, an Indiana transfer, had 161 yards rushing and 157 passing, while Coprich added 106 yards on the ground.

Adam Keller had three field goals for North Dakota State, breaking the FCS single-season record for kickers with 145 points before his final pointafter attempt was blocked to give the Redbirds a chance to win with a field goal.

Roberson reached the 44 in the final seconds, but Thorton won a tussle for the ball. The interception was held up on review.

tied career highs with four blocks and three steals. Senior Megan Waytashek finished with 14 points and Miller with 10 and four assists

Mur Hagerman led Fort Wayne with 16 points. Kamilah Carter added 13 points and Hillary Moore 12. The Jackrabbits held the Mastadons' leading scorer Haley Seibert to 8 points and 0-6 from three-point range.

pretty good defense."

Mount Marty, the nation's third-best team in three-pointers made per game (10), had no problem getting looks against the Presentation zone defense.

"They shoot a lot, but we knew they would, especially against our zone," said Presentation coach Eric Nelson, a former MMC men's assistant.

"It was just a matter of how many we could contend and handle.'

Though the Saints went on a 13-3 run to get within three points with 4:37 left in the first half, the Lancers answered with 10 consecutive points.

Despite hitting 6-of-19 three-pointers and committing 10 turnovers, Mount Marty took a rather comfortable 36-25 lead into halftime.

And it never got easier for the Saints (5-6).

"You just want to keep it going," Winne said. "You just don't want them to go on any runs; we always talk about 30second stops.

Presentation sophomore Haley Froelich, a MMC transfer, came in as the nation's fourthleading scorer (22.2) and finished with a game-high 18 points against her former team.

"She's our hardest worker," Nelson said. "We're really happy to have her. She's one of those kids who makes everyone around her better.'

Senior Holly Hegge added 14 points in the win for the Lancers, while junior Alex Kneeland had 13 points, and junior Raquel Sutera posted seven points and seven rebounds.

Mount Marty, 3-7 in the GPAC, returns to league play Wednesday at home against Dakota Wesleyan.
