Mount Marty College Announces Homecoming Royalty Candidates

The Mount Marty College faculty, staff and senior students recently voted for homecoming royalty candidates among its eligible senior class. Five women and five men were chosen to be candidates for Lord and Lady Marben as part of the 56th Annual Homecoming Coronation taking place on Friday, February 6 at 7:30 p.m. in Marian Auditorium on the Yankton campus. Coronation is one of many student activities scheduled during the weeklong "Mount Marty Gras" celebration, which begins with a 4 p.m. homecoming Mass on Sunday, February 1.

The five women chosen were: Holly Hegge, Crofton, Neb., daughter of Bob and Helene Hegge; Anna Kollasch, Whittemore, Iowa, daughter of Stephen and Debra Kollasch; Courtney Miller, Mitchell, So. Dak., daughter of Jeff and Rita Miller; Lauren Orwig, Norfolk, Neb., daughter of Scott and Clare Orwig; and Kelsey Schmidt, Mt. Vernon, So. Dak., daughter of Ken and Lynne Schmidt.

The five men chosen were: Zachary Bauman, Sioux Falls, So. Dak., son of Aaron and Jenny Bauman and Corey and Joni Blauwet; Derek Blumenstock, O'Neill, Neb., son of Brad and Georgia Blumenstock; Jacob Fokken, Yankton, son of Denis and Mary Beth Fokken; Joshua Monson, Bryant, So. Dak., son of John Monson and Janelle Wolbeck; and Ryan Oye, Luverne, Minn., son of Steven and Andrea Oye.

Lord and Lady Marben will be crowned by last year's Lord, Ben Harmon and last year's Lady, Johanna Scheich.

The week's homecoming activities will conclude on Feb. 7th with men's and women's basketball games against Hastings College beginning at 2 p.m. and a formal dance later in the evening.

For more information about homecoming and coronation, please contact Mount Marty College Director of Student Activities, Lisa Willcockson at 605-668-1302 or lisa.willcockson@mtmc.edu.

Mount Marty College To Begin Year With The Saint John's Bible

The Benedictine Institute of Leadership, Ethics and Social Justice has announced the beginning of one year with the Saint John's Bible at Mount Marty College in Yankton.

Two volumes of a seven-volume Heritage Edition set will soon be available for the regional community to enjoy. The Saint John's Bible, the first hand-written, hand-illuminated bible in more than 500 years, has been made possible through the efforts of St. John's University and the monks of St. John's Abbey in Collegeville, Minnesota.

The first public open house with The Saint John's Bible will be held Sunday, Feb. 8, from 1-4 p.m. in the Mount Marty College Library.

In addition, the Feb. 24 Spring Benedictine Lecture will feature Tim Ternes, director of the Saint John's Bible, and will be held in Marian Auditorium at 7 p.m. The interactive presentation will be followed by a book viewing.

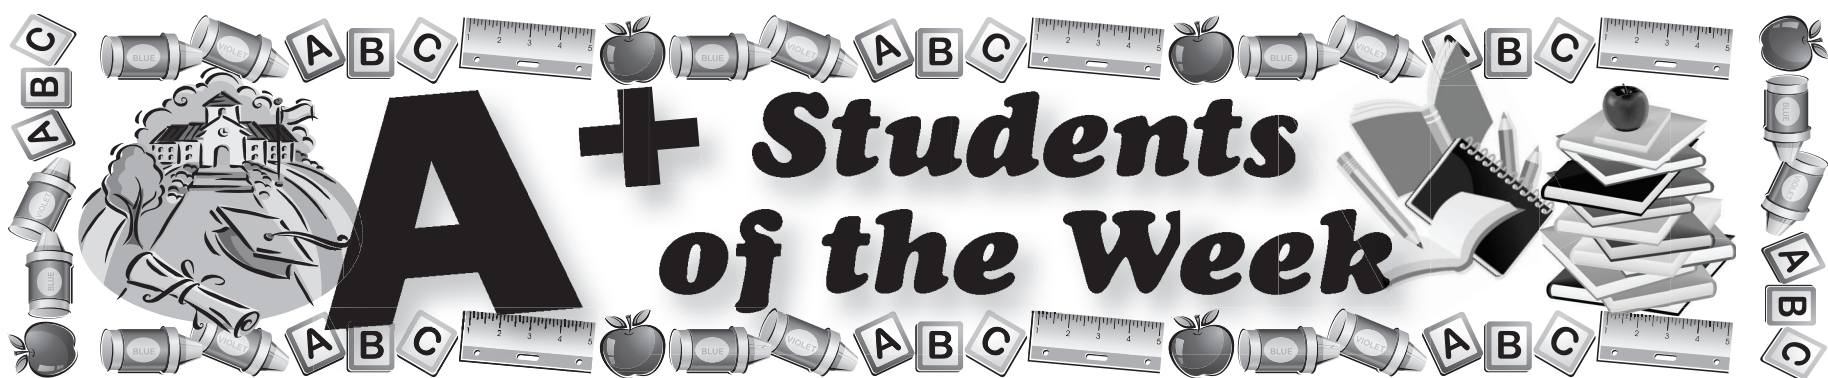

A Noon Forum, led by Dr. Theresa Lafferty, will take place March 26 in the Roncalli South Dining Room, and another public viewing of the bible will be held prior to the annual Stations of the Cross dramatic presentation held in Marian Auditorium March 31.

The public may visit the Saint John's Bible daily during the MMC Library hours of operation beginning Feb. 2. Library hours are Mondays through Thursdays from 7:30 a.m.-10 p.m., Fridays from 7:30 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturdays from 1-5 p.m. and Sundays from 1-10 p.m.

Groups and organizations interested in visiting the Yankton campus to engage with the Saint John's Bible are asked to contact Andrew Henrickson, 605-668-1495, ahenrickson@mtmc.edu. Arrangements may also be made for a volume of the Saint John's Bible to be brought to you.
