Former USF Coach Murphy To Take Over DWU Men's Basketball Program

MITCHELL (AP) — The former head men's basketball coach at the University of Sioux Falls has been named head coach at Dakota Wesleyan.

Shane Murphy, a former University of South Dakota standout player and assistant coach, succeeds John Hemenway. He left in May to become head coach at Berea College in Kentucky, another NAIA school.

Murphy returns to coaching after a two-year hiatus. Before that he led the Sioux Falls men's basketball program to its most successful stretch in school history, including a trip to the NAIA Division II National Tournament final four in 2004.

Dakota Wesleyan had a school record 28-6 season last year. The Tigers have been to the national tournament each of the past four seasons, making the sweet sixteen last year.

Uruguay, Netherlands Advance To World Cup Semifinals

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — Uruguay survived a last-second penalty kick by Ghana in extra time and then won the shootout 4-2 after a 1-1 draw to advance to the World Cup semifinals Friday.

The wild win put the South Americans in the tournament's last four for the first time since 1970. It eliminated the last of six African teams in the tournament and denied the continent its first-ever semifinalist.

Sebastian Abreu chipped in his penalty kick to give Uruguay the victory. It will play the Netherlands in the final four.

Ghana missed twice in the shootout, but wouldn't have been there had Asamoah Gyan, who made two penalty kicks earlier in the tournament, not hit the crossbar on the final play of overtime.

NETHERLANDS 2, BRAZIL 1: PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (AP) — Soccer's perennial World Cup underachievers from the Netherlands knocked off mighty Brazil on Friday, stamping the Dutch as a strong contender to finally win that elusive title.

Wesley Sneijder, one of the shortest players on the field, scored in the 68th minute on a header for a stunning 2-1 quarterfinals win over the five-time champions.

Top-ranked Brazil, which also went out in this round four years ago against France, lost its composure after it fell behind and defender Felipe Melo was ejected in the 73rd minute for stomping on the leg of Arjen Robben.

The Dutch made the championship match in 1974 and '78, lost both, and rarely have lived up to their talent in other World Cups. They did this time, helped by an own goal off the head of unfortunate Felipe Melo that brought them into a 1-1 tie in the 53rd.

LESTERVILLE — Chris Sutera had three of Tabor's 16 hits as the Bluebirds downed Lesterville 14-2 in South Central League amateur baseball action Friday night.

Sutera had a home run and a triple among his three hits. Brett Sime also homered among his two hits. Gary Kortan, Steve Fejfar, Brandon Tycz, Rob Keppen and Jason Humpal also had two hits each in the win.

For Lesterville, Mike Pavel doubled.

Logan Tycz picked up the win. Adam Goeken took the loss.

Tabor, 11-1 overall and 9-1 in SCL play, travels to Freeman Saturday. Lesterville is at Yankton Sunday. Both games will be followed by their respective city's Independence Day fireworks displays.

of their last 14 games, five by shutout, and are 10-20 since May 30.

Arroyo (8-4) allowed two hits and two walks.

Ryan Dempster (6-7) had allowed only two hits, including Phillips' solo homer, while striking out nine through six dominant innings before opening the seventh by walking Gomes and Jay Bruce.

BRAVES 4, MARLINS 3, 11 innings: ATLANTA (AP) — Omar Infante's two-run single in the 11th inning helped Atlanta rally past Florida for its 15th victory in its final at-bat.

The Braves have won two straight overall and five of seven. Atlanta leads the major leagues with a 29-9 home record. Florida has dropped two straight and six of eight.

Infante's single to left-center off closer Leo Nunez (3-2) scored Brian McCann and pinch-runner Brandon Hicks. McCann drew a leadoff walk and Troy Glaus doubled to put runners at second and third with none out.

Braves closer Billy Wagner blew a save when Gaby Sanchez's ninth homer tied it at 2 in the ninth.

Errors by Glaus and reliever Jonny Venters (3-0) in the 11th helped the Marlins take a 3-2 lead.

Hanley Ramirez hit a solo homer off Atlanta starter Kris Medlen.

Florida starter Josh Johnson allowed one run in six innings with no walks and eight strikeouts. Martin Prado had three hits for the Braves, including a pair of RBI singles.

METS 5, NATIONALS 3: WASHINGTON (AP) — Jonathon Niese pitched seven solid innings, striking out a career-high eight for his fifth straight win, and New York held off Washington.

The Nationals rallied for two runs in the ninth before Roger Bernadina, in a colossal baserunning blunder, was picked off second base by Francisco Rodriguez for the final out.

Niese (6-2) allowed six hits as he improved to 5-0 with a 2.43 ERA in six starts since coming off the disabled list June 5. He fanned eight in his first four innings — striking out the side in the fourth — and didn't walk a batter. To top it off, Niese added his first career RBI on a double in a four-run fourth against Luis Atilano (6-5).

David Wright had three hits and Alex Cora a three-run triple for the Mets. Rodriguez earned his 19th save.

Josh Willingham homered for Washington.

PIRATES 2, PHILLIES 0: PITTSBURGH (AP) — Ross Ohlendorf became the third Pittsburgh starting pitcher in three days to win for the first time this season, limiting slumping Philadelphia to five hits over seven innings.

The Phillies' seemingly ageless Jamie Moyer (9-7) was masterful at age 47 in his 625th career start, but two infield singles by the Pirates that barely traveled 90 feet combined and the pitcher's throwing error led to Philadelphia's fourth loss in five games.

Ohlendorf (1-6) was 0-8 in 16 starts since Aug. 18 before striking out eight and walking one against a lineup that was missing injured Chase Utley, Placido Polanco, Carlos Ruiz and was also without Shane Victorino, who was rested.

Joel Hanrahan pitched the eighth and Octavio Dotel earned his 18th save in 21 opportunities.

ROCKIES 6, GIANTS 3: DENVER (AP) — Jhoulys Chacin pitched six solid innings, Dexter Fowler had his second straight three-hit game and Colorado handed San Francisco its seventh straight loss.

Aubrey Huff homered twice for the Giants. Clint Barmes connected and Jonathan Herrera had three RBIs for Colorado.

Two-time Cy Young Award winner Tim Lincecum (8-4) gave up four runs, walked four and struck out four in six innings.

Chacin (5-7) settled down after a rough first inning. He retired 15 of the next 17 batters before running into trouble in the sixth. Chacin allowed three runs, walked two and struck out five.

Huston Street worked a perfect ninth for his second save.

CARDINALS 5, BREWERS 0: ST. LOUIS (AP) — Jaime Garcia bounced back from his worst start with seven innings of three-hit ball and Matt Holliday doubled twice and drove in a run in St. Louis' victory over Milwaukee.

Garcia (8-4) retired his last 13 hitters and had seven strikeouts, five days after the rookie gave up five runs in two innings with no strikeouts in a loss at Kansas City. The lefty got his biggest out when Prince Fielder tapped out to first with the bases loaded to end the first.

He beat the Brewers for the second time, matched his career best for innings and strikeouts, and lowered his ERA to 2.10.

Tyler Greene homered off Chris Narveson (7-5).

Milwaukee had won eight of 11.

Known for his sideline presence during football games, Bruckner has helped many athletes in his time at Menno develop into standouts, according to Kunz.

"If you ever watch him during a game, he's really intense," Kunz said. "When it comes down to it, some people can misread his enthusiasm. But he seriously cares about the kids and does a good job working with them."

Bruckner said a brief conversation he had with a fellow finalist at the awards ceremony in Sioux Falls spoke volumes.

"Any time you get an award from your peers, it means a lot," Bruckner said. "At the ceremony, I was talking to a guy from Wyoming and he was saying how it's nice to see small towns not being ignored.

"That's exactly the way I feel," he added. "This is such a nice honor."

Craven Corner. Wilber served as a player-manager for many of the teams during his career.

Wilber served as a South Dakota Amateur Baseball Association commissioner from 1979 to 1988 and has remained involved in the game as a VFW Teener and American Legion baseball manager in Miller and Dell Rapids.

Since 2001, he has been the manager of the Dell Rapids Mudcats, who have been one of the top Class B amateur baseball teams in the state during his tenure. The Mudcats won the state Class B title in 2008 and finished second in both 2001 and 2007.

The Miller native has taken care of the ballfields and promoted amateur baseball in every town he has represented throughout his playing and coaching career.

Robin Ackman, Mitchell

Robin Ackman's amateur baseball career started in 1972 as an American Legion pick-up player for the Mitchell Moonlight Bar team.

In 1973, he began playing third base for Mitchell Commerical Bank and continued playing until retiring in 1989. His batting average was never below .400 during his career.

While attending Dakota Wesleyan University during the late 1970s, he earned All-South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference honors for three years.

One of the highlights of his career was batting .645 in state amateur tournament play, still one of the top career averages in history.

After retiring as a player in 1989, he coached Little League baseball and was instrumental in starting the Mitchell Baseball Association in 1994, which funds the Teener and American Legion baseball programs in Mitchell. He also was involved with the many improvements made at Cadwell Park as well as putting countless hours in all of the state tournaments held in Mitchell.
