Coyote Women's Tennis Adds Sergeychik For 2010-11 Season

VERMILLION — University of South Dakota women's tennis coach Malcolm Gilreath announced Tuesday that Alena Sergeychik of Moscow, Russia, will join the Coyotes starting this fall.

Alena brings a wealth of Division I experience and will have an immediate impact for us," Gilreath said. "She is a solid singles and doubles player. We're continuing to move the program forward both in the classroom and on the court with her addition.

Prior to her time at Kennesaw State, Sergeychik had a successful time on the Russian and European junior circuits. She won the 2007 Moscow City Singles Championship after placing second in singles and doubles in 2007. She also qualified for the St. Petersburg city quarterfinals in 2007 and finished third in events at Moscow City and Balashikha in 2007.

Sergeychik joins Maddy Warder of Sioux City, Iowa, and Veronika Makashov of Richmond Hill, Ontario, as Coyote recruits for 2010-11.

Skyforce To Stay With T'Wolves, Heat

SIoux FALLS (AP) — Sioux Falls Skyforce officials on Tuesday said the team will continue to serve as the NBA Development League affiliate of the Minnesota Timberwolves and Miami Heat for the upcoming season.

The affiliation system allows Minnesota and Miami to assign players in their first or second season to Sioux Falls.

NATIONAL DIGEST

WNBA: Storm Rally Past Liberty

SEATTLE (AP) — Swin Cash had 20 points, Sue Bird scored 11 of her 16 in the fourth quarter and the Seattle Storm rallied to beat the New York Liberty 78-70 on Tuesday with Lauren Jackson on the sideline because of a mild concussion.

Jackson, averaging a team-best 21.4 points and 9.0 rebounds, was injured when she was hit in the face by Los Angeles' DeLisha Milton-Jones while going for a rebound during the Storm's 75-62 victory on Saturday. Jackson is listed as day to day.

LeCoe Williamson, substiting for Jackson, had 13 points for the Storm (16-2), who have won seven straight games. Camille Little finished with 12.

Taj McWilliams Franklin led the Liberty (7-9) with 20 points. Cappie Pondexter added 16.

MERCURY 98, SPARKS 89. LOS ANGELES (AP) — Diana Taurasi scored 30 points and Candice Dupree had a season-high 25 points and 12 rebounds to lead Phoenix.

DeWanna Bonner added 16 points for the Mercury (7-11), who have won two straight since ending a six-game skid.

SILVER STARS 79, SUN 66. SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Sophia Young scored 19 points to lead San Antonio to its first win this season over a winning team.

Michelle Snow scored 14 points, Becky Hammon had 12 and Chamique Holdslaw added 11 for San Antonio (6-9), which came in with an 0-4 mark against Eastern Conference opponents.

FEVER 58, SKY 51. ROSEMONT, Ill. (AP) — Tamika Catchings scored 16 points and Indiana used a 9-2 run in the fourth quarter to beat Chicago for the fourth straight time.

Catchings scored 10 points and the Fever (10-6) shot over 78 percent (11 of 14) from the field in the first quarter.

NBA: Clippers Reach Deal With Del Negro To coach

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Clippers reached an agreement in principle with Vinny Del Negro to become the team's head coach.

The team said Tuesday night in an e-mail that more details would be announced Wednesday.

Del Negro was fired by the Chicago Bulls in May after going 82-82 in two seasons and making two postseason appearances.

Mike Dunleavy quit as Clippers coach in early February to focus exclusively on his general manager duties, then he and the team severed ties completely on March 8. His assistant, Kim Hughes, finished the season as interim coach before being dismissed on April 15.

The Clippers had a 29-53 record last season, missing the playoffs for the 15th time in 17 years. They were 8-33 on the road, their worst mark away from home since 1999-2000, when they went 5-36.

World Cup: Netherlands Edges Uruguay, Earns Finals Berth

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Arjen Robben emerged from the bottom of an Orange mosh pit, mud on his brow and a smile on his face.

For good measure, he threw kisses at his teammates and fans. His goal gave the Netherlands a 3-2 victory over Uruguay and a spot in the World Cup final.

Now that's a Dutch treat!
The big prize — that elusive first title — is still one game away. But this was such a moment to savor that most of the squad made a curtain call nearly an hour after the biggest Netherlands victory in decades, leading about 1,000 orange-clad fans in cheers that figure to last until Sunday.

That's when the Dutch play either Spain or Germany for the championship of the world.

"If you win the final, you make yourself immortal, at least in our country," Robben said. "We will do everything we can to take the Cup back."

Long wasteful with its soccer talent, the Netherlands sure has found the right touch in this tournament.

Stars Wesley Sneijder and Robben scored three minutes apart in the second half as the Netherlands advanced to its first title match since losing in 1978 to Argentina.

"We are so close," Sneijder said. "There is nothing bigger than the World Cup."

And nothing better than sharing it with their countrymen.

So out came Robben, Sneijder and their teammates long after the final whistle, to join the celebration in an empty stadium — empty except for that rollicking section of fans still singing Dutch songs, waving flags, and bowing in unison. The players joined in from the field, several on the shoulders of others, some taking photos. Back home in Amsterdam, the victory touched off mass celebrations, too.

Winners of all six games in South Africa, 10 in a row overall and in the midst of a 25-match unbeaten streak, the Dutch have the look of champions — with an Orange hue, of course.

"This is unforgettable," said Sneijder, now tied with Spain's David Villa for top scorer at the tournament (five goals). "It was a tough fight and toward the end we complicated matters."

Sunday we play in the World Cup final. I have to get used to that."

Besides the loss to Argentina in '78, the Netherlands fell in its only other appearance in the final, to West Germany in 1974.

SIOUX FALLS — Cameron Schiltz was 3-3 with a double, but Yankton First Dakota Bank Post 12 was blanked 4-0 by Sioux Falls East in American Legion baseball action Tuesday night in Sioux Falls.

Cody Ulmer allowed three runs on four hits in six innings to take the loss, while Josh Teichrow allowed one run in two relief innings.

Derrick Nelson was 2-4 with a triple for Post 12, while Teichrow and Devin Gullikson both added hits.

Yankton, 13-12, concludes its league season tonight (Wednesday) with a pair of games at Valley Springs. The doubleheader starts at 5 p.m.

Monday's Legion

Yankton Post 12 10, Mitchell 1
MITCHELL — In a game moved from Yankton, it was the original hosts that picked up the win, as Yankton First Dakota Bank Post 12 cruised past Mitchell 10-1 on Monday night in Mitchell.

Cody Ulmer led Yankton with three hits, including two doubles, and two RBI. Derrick Nelson chipped in with two hits and three RBI, while Steven Stangase also had two RBIs.
