AREA DIGEST

Nebraska Hunter Education Requirement Changes

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — A measure signed into law last spring by Gov. Dave Heineman to close a loophole for young hunters is now in effect.

Nebraska law had stated that a hunter holding an apprentice hunter education exemption certificate must be accompanied by a licensed person age 19 or older. The new language in effect starting Thursday requires the accompanying person, if between the ages of 19 and 29, to have firearm hunter education certification if hunting with a firearm or crossbow. The accompanying person must have a bow hunter education certification if hunting with a bow and arrow.

Without the change, two people who did not have hunter education certification could each obtain an apprentice hunter education exemption certificate, then legally accompany each other.

Four-Person Scramble Saturday

TYNDALL — The Bon Homme Country Club will host a four-person scramble golf tournament Saturday, July 17. The event will begin with a 9 a.m. shotgun start.

For more information or to register, call the BHCC Clubhouse at 589-3186.

Scottie Stampede 3-on-3 Tourney Aug. 14

SCOTLAND — The 10th annual Scottie Stampede 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament will be held Saturday, Aug. 14 on Main Street in Scotland.

Action will be played in seven divisions, including girls' and boys' in grades 3-4, 5-6, 7-8 and 9-10, as well as men 19-29 and men 30 & older. Teams can consist of no more than four players, and players may only compete in one division.

Check-in will be held at 7 a.m. with play scheduled to start at 8 a.m.

All proceeds will benefit the Scotland Athletic Association.

For more information, or to register, contact Rob or Lisa Schmitz at 605-583-4847, or Shelly Konstanz at 605-583-4766.

U-11 Girls' Soccer Tryout July 16

Tryouts for a U-11 girls' soccer club team will be held on Friday, July 16 at 7 p.m. at Memorial Park.

Girls who will be 10 years old on or before July 31, 2010 are welcome to try out.

For more information, contact Doug Budig at 665-2346 or DouglasB@midwesttires.net, or Betty Bray at 661-3362 or betty-bray@mac.com.

Buck Football Camp July 19-20

The 2010 Yankton Buck Football Camp will be held Monday, July 19 and Tuesday, July 20 at Williams Field, the football field located north of Yankton High School.

The 7-9 grade camp will run from 8:30-10:30 a.m., with the high school camp scheduled for 1-3:40 p.m. and 5:30-8 p.m. each day.

Each day will feature instruction of individual offensive and defensive position fundamentals, as well as emphasis on offensive and defensive team schemes, including 7-on-7 competition.

All Yankton athletes must have their health recertification or physical updated and on file. Any out-of-town participants need to be cleared to participate through their local school.

For more information, contact Jason Oswald at 665-2073, or e-mail alikness@ysd.k12.sd.us or joswald@ysd.k12.sd.us.

Applications Sought For Hillcrest Ladies Pro-Am

Entry applications are currently being accepted for the 10th Annual Hillcrest Invitational Ladies Pro-Am to be held on Tuesday, Aug. 3 at Hillcrest Golf & Country Club in Yankton.

The event is a 2 p.m. shotgun following the Pro-Qualifier event.

Check the Pro-Am News page at www.hillcrest.4t.com, or call 665-4621 for more information.

Correction

A photo cutline for the South Central League notebook story in Thursday's edition of the Press & Dakotan had an incorrect score.

Irene beat Menno 14-13 on July 11.

We apologize for the error.

Baddour: NCAA Investigating North Carolina

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — North Carolina athletic director Dick Baddour said Thursday the NCAA is investigating a sports program at the school regarding possible rules violations.

Baddour declined to say which sport, but a person familiar with the investigation told The Associated Press the NCAA is looking at Butch Davis' football program. The person spoke to the AP on condition of anonymity because the investigation is confidential.

"I was told that I could limit my comments to the fact that they had been here and they wanted me to say that we had indeed been cooperative," said Baddour, adding that the inquiry "has our full attention."

The investigation began with a phone call from the NCAA, Baddour said, though he didn't say when the call came or when investigators had visited the Chapel Hill campus.

"We work hard on our compliance program, a program of integrity," Baddour said. "We're proud of it. We are also proud that, or we think very strongly that, we get an inquiry from the NCAA that we would comply, we would do what they asked us to do and we would do it forthright and completely."

Davis is preparing for his fourth season in Chapel Hill and has guided the program to consecutive eight-win seasons, which includes the program's first back-to-back bowl seasons since the late 1990s when Mack Brown left for Texas.

Davis has a 20-18 record with the Tar Heels, including 11-13 in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He inherited the program from John Bunting and the Tar Heels had went to just two bowl games in six seasons, during which they were a woeful 27-45.

The Tar Heels are expected to contend for the ACC's Coastal Division title with a defense that returns nine starters from a unit that ranked among the nation's best last year. North Carolina opens the season against LSU in Atlanta on Sept. 4.

— Jair Jurrjens gave up only one run, rookie Jason Heyward made two strong defensive plays in his return from an injury and the Atlanta Braves beat the Milwaukee Brewers 2-1 on Thursday night.

Martin Prado and Chipper Jones hit home runs in the third inning off Dave Bush (4-7).

Corey Hart's 22nd homer gave Milwaukee a 1-0 lead in the first inning. It was the only run allowed by Jurrjens, who gave up five hits and two walks with three strikeouts in 6 2-3 innings.

Jurrjens (2-3) earned his second win in three starts since returning from a hamstring injury.

Billy Wagner pitched a perfect ninth for his 21st save.

CARDINALS 7, DODGERS 1:

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Chris Carpenter allowed four hits in eight innings to improve to 6-0 against the Los Angeles Dodgers, and the St. Louis Cardinals chased an off-kilter Clayton Kershaw early.

Allen Craig had two RBIs without a hit off Kershaw (9-5), who issued consecutive walks on 11 pitches to start the Cardinals' two-run first, meriting a quick visit from pitching coach Rick Honeycutt. Kershaw also got tagged with a liner off his right leg for an infield hit by Aaron Miles in the second and allowed four earned runs in 4 1-3 innings with one strikeout.

Carpenter (10-3) struck out six with no walks.

Andre Ethier homered and singled for the Dodgers, who committed errors on consecutive plays in St. Louis' two-run fourth.

CUBS 12, PHILLIES 6:

CHICAGO (AP) — Aramis Ramirez hit a pair of two-run doubles, and Derrek Lee and Geovany Soto each had two-run homers to lead the Cubs to a win over the Phillies.

Alfonso Soriano also hit a solo homer for the Cubs, who scored nine of their 12 runs with two outs.

Cubs starter Ryan Dempster allowed two runs on six hits with three walks and nine strikeouts. Dempster (8-7) rebounded after allowing a long two-run homer to Ryan Howard in the first inning.

The Cubs tagged Phillies starter Jamie Moyer (9-9) for six runs on five hits in three innings. He allowed two home runs and hit two batters. In his last two starts, he has allowed 13 runs in 8 1-3 innings.

Crofton 15, Scotland 1

SCOTLAND — The Crofton Bluejays made themselves at home in Scotland, scoring all 15 of their runs in a three-inning span of a 15-1 victory over Scotland in South Central League amateur baseball action Thursday.

The game was scheduled to be played in Crofton, Neb., but was moved to Scotland due to Crofton hosting a district American Legion baseball tournament.

Nick Hegge had a home run, double and single to spark Crofton. Carl Schieffer also had three hits. Tony Guenther had a home run and a double. Logan Foxhoven added two doubles in the win.

Derek Wieman and Dan Janssen had two hits each for Scotland.

Logan Foxhoven pitched three scoreless innings for the win. Paul Plante took the loss.

Crofton finishes the regular season at Menno Sunday. Scotland, which has completed its SCL regular season, will host Corsica Sunday at 5:30 p.m.
