Dakota Blue Devils Fall In Quarters At AAU Super Showcase

ORLANDO, Fla. — The Dakota Blue Devils, a South Dakota AAU girls' basketball team, lost in the quarterfinals Saturday at the AAU Super Showcase tournament in Orlando.

After winning their pool play, the Blue Devils advanced to the 11th grade Silver division championship bracket. There, they cruised past Florida-based Treasure Coast Lady Ballers 70-49 on Saturday afternoon, but lost to Voguees — a Washington, D.C. area team — 66-63 in the quarterfinal round.

The Blue Devils finished with a perfect 3-0 mark in their pool play group, the last win coming against the Tampa Bay Inferno, 80-34, on Saturday morning. Among the players on the 17-Under Dakota roster are Beresford's Alison Klostergaard, Wagner's Devon Brecke and Parkston's Marie Malloy.

The Blue Devils' 15-Under sophomore team finished pool play with a 2-1 record, with the loss coming Saturday morning to Gauchos Black, 52-35. The Blue Devils then advanced to the Gold bracket, where they were eliminated by Georgia Pearls 2013 Elite by a 67-24 score.

In eighth-grade action, the Blue Devils finished with an 0-3 record in pool play action, following a 36-14 loss to Essence 2015s on Saturday.

Flood Relief Soccer Camp July 13

The City of Yankton is partnering with Chris Houser of Rethink Soccer and Kelly Bass of Four Directions Counseling Inc. to host a flood relief soccer camp in Yankton on Wednesday, July 13, from 9 a.m.-noon at Memorial Park.

The clinic, open to players of all ages and skill levels, is free, but accepted donations will go toward the Missouri River flood relief crisis affecting Yankton County. Houser is a former Major League Soccer (MLS) and USA national team player, and is the only professional soccer player to come out of South Dakota.

The Rethink Soccer camp was first offered through the Turner County Soccer Program in Parker this March. The camp had 225 kids, aged 4-12, from eight different local communities participate.

Bass, the founder of Four Directions Counseling, Inc., will donate sessions and services to the communities where children and families have been impacted by the natural disaster, matching the amount that is donated by camp participants.

The City of Yankton will provide all clinic participants with a free pass to Memorial Park Pool following the clinic on July 13.

Participants are asked to come dressed in soccer gear, bring a soccer ball that is labeled with the player's name and swim gear to change into after the camp.
