

MMC To Hold Alumni Reunion This Weekend

Mount Marty College will host a reunion for graduates from class years ending in one or six Saturday and Sunday. Today's events include a breakfast, campus tours, luncheon, and afternoon tea hosted by former faculty and staff. Following the day's events, alumni will gather for a social and Saturday evening banquet in the Roncalli dining room, at which time Distinguished Alumni Awards will be presented. A Eucharistic Celebration will be held in Bishop Marty Memorial Chapel on Sunday morning, followed by a brunch in Roncalli.

Court Service Officers, Other Agents Honored

PIERRE — The work of court service officers, parole agents and juvenile corrections agents is being recognized across South Dakota next week. Gov. Dennis Daugaard and South Dakota Supreme Court Chief Justice David Gilbertson have proclaimed July 17-23, 2011, as "Court Services, Parole Agents and Juvenile Corrections Agents Week" in South Dakota. Across the state, parole and juvenile community corrections are functions of the Department of Corrections, while probation falls under the supervision of the Unified Judicial System. As of June 30, 2011, there were more than 2,400 people on parole and suspended sentence supervision in South Dakota and juvenile corrections agents were supervising more than 700 youth in placement and on aftercare in South Dakota. Nationwide, there are more than 5 million adults and juveniles that are under various types of community supervision. Parole field offices are located in Aberdeen, Brookings, Huron, Mitchell, Pierre, Rapid City, Sioux Falls, Spearfish, Watertown and Yankton. Juvenile Corrections Agents field offices are located in Aberdeen, Brookings, Chamberlain, Custer, Huron, Mitchell, Moberg, Pierre, Rapid City, Sioux Falls, Sisseton, Spearfish, Watertown, White River, Winner and Yankton.
