

St. John's Lutheran Church Offers Bible School

It's time for Vacation Bible School at St. John's Lutheran in Yankton. Join us for the "Gold Rush," where kids will discover that their one true treasure is in Christ.

You'll enjoy fun crafts, great music, thrilling Bible stories, tasty snacks and meeting new friends.

At St. John's, we provide a vacation Bible school ministry that is a Christ-centered approach to teaching the faith. We encourage building relationships with people of all ages in Jesus Christ.

Call St. John's at 605-665-7337 to register. Children ages 3 years old up to those entering 6th grade this fall are eligible.

The vacation Bible school will take place at St. John's Lutheran Church, 1009 Jackson St., Yankton. Classes run from 6:30-9 p.m. from July 24-27. We would like to invite parents and families to join us for our "Closing Music Celebration" on Wednesday night, July 27, at 8:40 p.m.

Galilee-By-the-Sea To Be Held At Kingsway

Kingsway Christian Church invites kids to the Galilee-By-the-Sea Vacation Bible School. For ages 4 years old through 5th grade, the VBS will run Sunday, July 24-Thursdays, July 28, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. While pre-registration for this free event is preferred, walk-up registrations will be taken from 6-6:30 p.m. on Sunday, July 24.

This year we're transforming our church into a seaside village in Galilee. Our Galilee-By-the-Sea program will provide fun, memorable Bible-learning activities for kids. Each day they will join with a small group that's named after one of the 12 tribes of Israel. These family Tribes will come together for singing and then explore traditional Bible-times family life. They will visit the Synagogue, play authentic games, make crafts and sample Middle Eastern snacks.

Galilee-By-the-Sea is an exciting way for kids to learn more about the amazing things Jesus did. They will witness real-life dramas, chat with people about what Jesus has said and done and discover what is was like to live when Jesus did. We hope Galilee-By-the-Sea will make God's Word very real to all who participate.

Please call 660-7537 or 661-0938 to pre-register.

Kingsway Christian Church is located on the corner of 19th Street and Burleigh in Yankton.

Trinity Lutheran Church Goes Whole Hog in July

When Trinity Lutheran Church breaks ground on their new parking lot this month, they'll go whole hog. All are invited to a contemporary worship service outdoors at 5 p.m. on Saturday, July 30. Worship will be followed by a pork roast meal at 6 p.m., and several members, including "famous celebrities" will make appearances at the Trinity's Got Talent variety show at 7 p.m.

Tickets to the meal are available at the church office. The meal will include roast pork sandwiches, baked beans, potato salad, cole slaw, and of course some good old Lutheran jello. Root beer floats are also included in the meal. Adult tickets are $12; tickets for youth age 12 and under are $6.

WWJBBQ T-shirts are also available for this event. Need a translation? That would be: What Would Jesus Barbecue? Shirts will be available on July 30.

The parking lot groundbreaking is one more step toward building the new sanctuary and renovating the current building and classrooms. Trinity Lutheran Church is located at 403 Broadway. For more information call 665-7415 or go to www.tlcyankton.com.

Waldner Messengers To Perform July 31

TRIPP — The Waldner Messengers will perform a free concert at Frieden's Reformed Church, Tripp, at 7 p.m. Sunday, July 31. A free-will offering will be accepted.

The F.C.S.L.A. WO93/Catholic Workman annual pot luck picnic will be held on August 7, 2011 at noon in Sokol Park. In case of inclement weather we will move into Beseda Hall in Tabor.

Branch WO93 will furnish hot dogs and refreshments.

Lutherans Clarify Views After Bachmann Departure

BY ANNYSA JOHNSON
Milwaukee Journal Sentinel

MILWAUKEE — The nation's third-largest Lutheran denomination moved to clarify its views on the Catholic Church this week, after being drawn into the national political debate by presidential candidate Michele Bachmann.

The Wauwatosa, Wis.-based Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod, the most theologically conservative of the nation's three main Lutheran denominations, issued a statement on its website Monday explaining its long-held tenet that the Catholic papacy is the anti-Christ. But it said that position is born of doctrinal differences rather than anti-Catholic bigotry.

"We respect the right of people to hold beliefs different from ours even as we point out the error," WELS president, the Rev.

Mark Schroeder, said in the statement.

"Testifying to the errors that still exist in Catholic doctrine is itself an expression of love," he said.

Questions surrounding the church's anti-Christ doctrine have circulated since June — mostly in the blogosphere — when Bachmann and her husband, Marcus, withdrew their membership from a WELS congregation in Stillwater, Minn., where they had belonged for more than a decade.

She announced her candidacy for president a week later. WELS spokesman Joel Hochmuth said the Bachmanns had not attended the church in two years and that the timing of the withdrawal was more coincidental than strategic. A message left with her campaign headquarters was not returned. Spokesmen for the local Archdiocese of Milwaukee and Washington-based U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops offered no immediate comments on the website posting or the recent controversy surrounding the anti-Christ rhetoric.

But a Catholic theologian and Luther scholar long active in Catholic-Lutheran dialogue suggested the WELS position is outside the mainstream of contemporary Lutheran thought.

"The Lutheran World Federation and its 140 churches have formally distanced themselves from that epithet .??. which plays no role in Lutheran-Catholic dialogue today," said Father Jared Wicks, who is theologian in residence at John Carroll University near Cleveland.

WELS, which represents 390,000 members in the United States and Canada, does not belong to the federation.

The anti-Christ doctrine dates to the Protestant Reformation of the 16th century when Martin Luther and others attempted to reform the Catholic Church, whose hierarchy they viewed as corrupt.

The WELS statement said the papacy fulfills the Biblical definition of anti-Christ as one who is "in place of" Christ, by asserting an authority to speak for God on Earth — at times infallibly — and holding that there is no salvation outside the Catholic Church.

Wicks, the Catholic theologian, said WELS is misinterpreting both the doctrine of infallibility — which he says has been asserted only once in 140 years, in reference to the assumption of Mary into heaven — and the church's teachings on salvation.

"Popes since the 1850s have said that salvation goes far beyond the Catholic Church," he said.

Drop By Days Announced At Missouri Valley

Missouri Valley Christian Academy, a non-denominational Christian school, will be hosting a series of "Drop By" Days for families with children entering grades K-6th for the 2011-12 school year. Sweet Adelines Planning Fall Show/Practices

The River City Harmony Chapter of Sweet Adelines meets every Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. at the Methodist Church, 207 W. 11th St. (11th & Cedar). All who like to sing are welcome to join us.

We have been working on our fall show which will be held at the Marian Auditorium on Oct. 16.

We will be featuring a Southern theme and are busily working on stage settings and costumes as well as learning the Southern program.

We have cancelled our July 25th rehearsal as our director, Ethel Cooper and assistant director Marlene Herman will be in Europe singing with the Prairie Chorus directed by Jennifer Powell. Also singing with them will be two of our members, namely Betty Thomas and Carole Hurley. When they return we will again be hard at work on our new show.

Free Community Concert To Be Held

Tami Briggs, a nationally known therapeutic harpist and speaker, will be giving a free community concert at 7 p.m. Wednesday, July 27, in the Gathering Place at Avera Sacred Heart Majestic Bluffs, 2111 W. 11th St., Yankton.

Healing music can play a unique role in our life's journey. This concert will explore how music, especially the harp, nurtures and relaxes you.

Briggs, a certified harp practitioner since 1999, has played at the bedside of hundreds of hospital and hospice patients. As a composer and recording artist, she has released 13 CDs for relaxation, comfort, healing and sleep; she has also written two books. Her presentation promises to be enjoyable, relaxing and soothing experience, a respite from our busy lives.

Sponsored by Avera Sacred Heart Pastoral Care, Avera Center for MindBodySpirit and Avera Sacred Heart Foundation.
