Boys & Girls Club Social Event, Golf Tourney July 20-21
The Boys & Girls Club of Yankton will hold a social event and golf tournament fundraiser July 20-21 in Yankton.

The social event will be held Friday, July 20, at the Elks Lodge. The event begins at 5:30 p.m. with a dinner and social hour, followed by guest speaker Tommie Frazier, two-time national champion quarterback for the University of Nebraska, beginning at 7 p.m. A live auction will follow Frazier's speech, with a chance to golf with Frazier during Saturday's tournament among the items up for bid.

The golf tournament will be held Saturday, July 21, at Fox Run, beginning with an 8:30 a.m. The event is an 18-hole four-person scramble.

Girls' Soccer Clinic July 18-31
The Yankton Youth Soccer Association will host a free girls' soccer clinic, running July 18-31 from 6-8 p.m. on scheduled nights at Field 4 of the Lewis & Clark Soccer Park.

Boys' Soccer Clinic July 23-31
The Yankton Youth Soccer Association will host a free boys' soccer clinic, running July 23-31 from 6-8 p.m. on scheduled nights at Field 3 of the Lewis & Clark Soccer Park. Participants are asked to bring appropriate soccer gear and plenty of water.

Florida Catcher Wins Golden Spikes Award
SECAUCUS, N.J. (AP) — Florida catcher Mike Zunino has been selected as the winner of the Golden Spikes Award, given to the nation's top amateur baseball player.

UCLA pitcher Trevor Bauer, now with the Arizona Diamondbacks, won the Golden Spikes Award last year.

Make No Mistake, Yankton Is A National Archery Hub

hubs in the country, aided by the relocation of the National Field Archery Association (NFAA) headquarters in 2008. I understood his point. In essence, he was asking if as more Yankton citizen respects what their city has.

Castellanos, Myers Power U.S. To Futures Game Win
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Detroit prospect Nick Castellanos hit a three-run homer during a nine-run sixth inning, and Royals minor leaguer Will Myers added three RBIs to lead the U.S. team to a 17-5 rout of the World team in the All-Star Futures Game on Sunday.

Nebraska Game and Parks officials plan to conduct a drawing for the permits in mid-August, so applications will be accepted through the end of July.

Horse Racing's Future Uncertain In Nebraska Capital
LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The future of horse racing in Lincoln is uncertain after this year's live racing session ends on Sunday because the current track is set to be demolished.

August Drawing Planned For Neb. Paddlefish Permits
LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Anyone interested in a Nebraska paddlefish snagging permit should apply for one during July.

Vikings RB Peterson Arrested

HOUSTON (AP) — Minnesota Vikings star running back Adrian Peterson was arrested on a charge of resisting arrest after an early morning incident where police say it took three officers to subdue him. Houston Police Department spokesman Kese Smith said Peterson was at a downtown nightclub early Saturday morning when an off-duty Houston police officer working security asked Peterson and a group of people he was with to leave because it was closed. The man, who Kese said identified himself as a police officer, left to tell other patrons to leave the club before returning to Peterson's group to again tell them to leave. Kese said Peterson turned around and told the officer that he heard him the first time and pushed him in the shoulder, causing him to stumble. The officer told Peterson he was under arrest and to put his hands behind his back. Peterson began yelling, pulled away and "assumed an aggressive stance" so another off-duty officer came to help. Peterson continued to struggle with them both.

Hornets, Magic Swapping Ayon, Anderson

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A person familiar with the deal says Orlando has agreed to a sign-and-trade sending restricted free agent forward Ryan Anderson to New Orleans in exchange for forward Gustavo Ayon.

The person told the Associated Press of the deal Sunday on condition of anonymity because the NBA's trade moratorium prevents clubs from announcing trades before July 11. The 6-foot-10 Anderson is entering his fifth NBA season out of California. He started 61 games for Orlando last season, averaging 16.1 points and 7.7 rebounds.

Ayon, a 6-10 Mexico native, spent his rookie NBA campaign in New Orleans last season after playing professionally in Spain's top pro league. The 27-year-old Ayon started 24 games for Orlando, averaging 5.9 points and 4.9 rebounds in 20.1 minutes per game.

changed since their younger days, but Chandler said one key thing hasn't changed. "I love shooting with my peers because our all attitudes are the same; we've all been doing this for a long time," Chandler said. "We're here for a good time."

First Dakota Classic Winners

In the world of competitive archery, a pair of familiar names came out on top Sunday after the second round of the First Dakota Bank Classic in Yankton. Professional archers Jamie Van Natta and Tim Gillingham won their respective divisions, each saying the victories will propel them to greater heights this summer.

Battling the wind on Saturday was an adventure in itself, let alone the act of shooting arrows into targets 40, 50 and 60 yards away, Van Natta said. "This was quite a challenge," she said. The computer programmer from Toledo, Ohio, won the Pro Female Freestyle division.
