

Lancers Add Track And Field, Volleyball Standout

Sadie Fedor of Monticello, Minn., will attend Mount Marty and compete in both track and field and volleyball for the Lancers beginning this fall, the institution announced on Thursday.

Fedor

percent. For her efforts on the court, Fedor was a team captain and a two-year letterwinner.

"Sadie is an all-around recruit for us," said MMC volleyball coach Candice Climer. "She's very athletic and will be a great addition to our program and the Mount Marty community."

The daughter of Tom and Kathy Fedor, she plans to major in nursing at MMC. She is the recipient of an academic incentive scholarship in addition to her track and volleyball awards.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Twins Put Swarzak On DL, Bring Up Rookie Perdomo

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Minnesota Twins have placed right-handed reliever Anthony Swarzak on the 15-day disabled list with a right rotator cuff strain.

The move was made Thursday. To take Swarzak's place, right-hander Luis Perdomo's contract will be selected from Triple-A Rochester. To make room for Perdomo on the 40-man roster, right-hander Carl Pavano will be transferred to the 60-day disabled list.

Pavano already has missed 52 days because of a right shoulder injury, so this won't extend his absence by much. He recently began throwing off a mound.

Perdomo started with Double-A New Britain and was promoted to Rochester. He has a 2.14 ERA in 59 innings with 61 strikeouts this season between the two teams. Perdomo would be the 41st player to appear in a game this year for the Twins.

United Football League Will Return For 4th Season

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The United Football League will return for a fourth season and a cable channel will televise games.

UFL spokesman Larry Weisman said Thursday that details about the second-tier pro league's structure would be announced later.

CBS Sports Network has agreed to televise games on Wednesdays and Fridays over an eight-week season starting Sept. 19. A network spokesman declined to disclose terms.

A network news release said former NFL coaches Marty Schottenheimer and Jim Fassel would return. Schottenheimer is with the Norfolk, Va., team and Fassel with Las Vegas. Omaha, Neb., and Sacramento, Calif., also had teams in 2011.

The league is made up of players who were cut in NFL training camps, veterans who want to get back to the NFL and free agents.

Suh Faces Lawsuit Over December Car Crash

DETROIT (AP) — Ndamukong Suh is being sued for just more than $1 million by a woman who claims she was injured in a December car crash in Oregon involving the Detroit Lions' star.

Saadia Van Winkle accuses Suh of negligence, recklessness and intentional infliction of emotional distress in the suit, which her attorney says was filed in Multnomah County Circuit Court.

Police said Suh was not impaired and was cooperative with officers following the Dec. 3 accident. In the following days, police said they had no plans to investigate the accident further after two women claimed they suffered injuries in the wreck.

The suit accuses Suh of lying to 911 operators about whether anyone was injured.

A message was left for Suh's attorney.

Vikings Sign Top Pick Kalil

EDEN PRAIRIE, Minn. (AP) — The Minnesota Vikings have signed tackle Matt Kalil, their top draft pick and the last player from their 2012 draft class to reach a contract. Terms weren't disclosed Thursday, one day before the team opens training camp in Mankato.

Kalil was the fourth choice overall from Southern California.

Uganda Little League Team

Cleared For World Series

SOUTH WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — A youth baseball team from Uganda has been cleared to enter the United States and participate in the Little League World Series a year after another Ugandan team was denied visas.

Little League officials say members of the Lugazi Little League team received clearance from the Department of State to travel to next month's tournament in South Williamsport, Pa. The Lugazi squad is the first team from the continent of Africa to reach the series.

Last year, the team from Kampala won the Middle East and Africa Region, only to be denied admission to the U.S. because of discrepancies over players' ages and birth dates. The regional runner-up Kuwaiti team traveled to the U.S. instead.

The Ugandan team will begin play Aug. 17 against Aguadulce, Panama.

Timberwolves To Open Season At Home Against Sacramento

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Minnesota Timberwolves will start the 2012-13 season at home against the Sacramento Kings on Nov. 2.
