SPORTS DIGEST

Crofton's Wilken Named Big Ten Distinguished Scholars

LINCOLN, Neb. — A total of 68 Nebraska student-athletes across all sports earned recognition as Big Ten Distinguished Scholars when the conference announced its high honor roll on Wednesday, July 10.

Nebraska's 68 student-athletes were among 637 student-athletes across 38 sports from all 12 of the Big Ten institutions to earn 3.7 or higher grade-point averages during the 2012-13 academic year. Among the distinguished scholars, 101 completed the year with perfect 4.0 GPAs, including 11 Huskers.

In February of 2008, Big Ten Faculty Representatives established a conference academic recognition to supplement the Academic All-Big Ten program. Similar to the Academic All-Big Ten honor, Distinguished Scholar Award recipients must be letterwinners in at least their second academic year at their institution. However, the Distinguished Scholar Award encompasses only student-athletes with a minimum GPA of 3.7 or higher for the previous academic year, excluding summer school. The Academic All-Big Ten threshold is a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher for a student-athlete's academic career.

Among the honorees is track and field athlete Morgan Wilken, a senior from Crofton, Neb.

Mooney Joins SDSU Volleyball Staff

BROOKINGS — South Dakota State head volleyball coach Phil McDaniel announced the addition of Angela Mooney to the Jackrabbit volleyball staff on Wednesday. Mooney joins the Jackrabbits after nine seasons as an assistant at UTEP in El Paso, Texas, where she played an instrumental role for the Miners in recruiting, training middle blockers and organizing UTEP volleyball camps.

In her nine years on the bench at UTEP, Mooney played a pivotal role in helping the Miners defense into one of the best blocking teams in the nation, leading the team to three straight seasons with a top-80 national ranking for blocks per set, and she looks forward to making an impact on the Jacks.
