Arrests Made At Drinking Party

From P&D Staff Reports

Multiple arrests were made early Saturday in connection with an underage drinking party, according to the Yankton County Sheriff's Office.

Sheriff Jim Vlahakis said information was received of a large party planned for the 2000 block of East-side Drive, Yankton.

Deputies checked on the property at 12:15 a.m. Saturday and found the party under way. Many individuals fled the scene on foot.

Deputies charged seven individuals ranging in age from 15 to 20 with underage consumption of alcohol.

Two adult residents at the property — Justin Grosshuesch, 22, Yankton, and Cody Culp, 22, Yankton — were charged with furnishing alcohol to minors (under 18), furnishing alcohol to minors (18-20) and maintaining a place where beverage laws are violated.

Rotary To Collect Items For School Back Packs

Before school begins, the Yankton Rotary is asking you to help area kids in grades K-12 fill their back packs.

The Rotary will be collecting all sorts of items through Friday, Aug. 2, then distributing them back to the community on Aug. 8. If you can make any donation, drop it off at the Welcome Center or the Kmart courtesy counter. Simply look for the tote with the Rotary symbol and drop your items in.

The list of items needed will also be available at these sites.

DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.

It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.
