Fourteen MMC Programs Named NIAA Scholar-Juniors

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Fourteen athletic programs at Mount Marty College were named 2012-13 NIAA Scholar-Juniors, announced last week by the NIAA.

Mount Marty's baseball program earned the recognition for the 10th consecutive year, with a 3.22 GPA.

In order for the Lancers were women's tennis (3.71), women's basketball (3.50), outdoor women's track (3.48), volleyball (3.46), women's indoor track (3.38), men's golf (3.36), women's soccer (3.33), men's outdoor track (3.31), women's golf (3.30), men's indoor track (3.26), women's cross country (3.22), men's cross country (3.15) and softball (3.13).

For a team to be considered, it must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. The team GPA includes all eligible varsity student-athletes.

Avon's Nagel Signs With DWU

MITCHELL — Dakota Wesleyan University women's basketball coach Jason Christensen recently wrapped up recruiting for the 2013-14 season, but he already has a head start on his recruiting class for 2014-15.

Christensen, who begins his fourth year with the Tiger women's basketball program this fall, announced Tuesday afternoon that Avon High School standout Chesney Nagel will join the program starting in the fall of 2014. She is the first signee for the 2014-15 season, and gets Christensen's recruiting class off to a solid start.

Nagel comes to the Tigers after a three-year career for the Pirate varsity basketball team. She earned three varsity letters and started for three years for coach Brad Poppe. As a junior in 2012-13, she averaged 20.2 points, seven rebounds and six assists per game while shooting 36 percent from the field. The 5-foot-8 guard earned all-conference first team and Class B All-State Second Team honors as a junior.

Nagel also earned second team all-conference accolades as a freshman and sophomore. She qualified for the International Science and Engineering Fair in 2013 and earned the Governor's Leadership Excellence Award in 2012. Nagel, who is a member of the Merit Honor Roll, was an All-American Scholar and a National Science Merit Award winner in 2011.

Kaiser Helps Neb. Select To 2-2 Mark

CHICAGO — Hartington Cedar Catholic standout James Kaiser scored double figures in three of his team's four games as the Nebraska Select 16s went 2-2 at the Chicago Summer Challenge basketball tournament over the weekend.

Kaiser opened with a 10-point performance in Select's 71-46 victory over Illinois Select on Friday. After scoring one point in the team's 68-67 loss to the Illinois Bears, Kaiser poured in seven three-pointers on the way to a team-high 23 points in a 68-63 victory over the Fort Wayne Splice Gym Rams.

Nebraska Select was eliminated by Chicago's Team Rose 75-61 on Sunday, with Kaiser finishing with 18 points.

Nebraska Select is 10-4 on the summer, and will travel to the D1 Summer Classic in Minneapolis this weekend.

L&C Tennis Classic Aug. 2-4

DWU Volleyball To Host Camps

MITCHELL — Dakota Wesleyan University volleyball coach Eric Viney and the Tiger volleyball program will host a trio of camps for high school and elementary-aged volleyball players next week.

The Tiger Youth Camp runs July 22-23, the Tiger High School Skills Camp is July 22-24 and the Tiger Team Camp is July 24-27. All three camps will be at the Christen Family Recreation/Wellness Center on the DWU campus.

The youth camp is open to volleyball players in third through eighth grades and runs from 2-5 p.m. each day. Campers will learn basic volleyball skills and rules. The high school skills camp runs from 8 a.m. to noon each day. Allows athletes to experience more individual training at a college level. The camp focuses on fundamental skills while integrating advanced strategy and concepts.

There is a cost to participate. Contact Viney at 605-995-2855 to register or for more information, or register online at www2.dwu.edu/webstore/events/volleyball/VolleyballCamps.aspx.
