shows what they could have

The question now is: How many more no-hitters could Krier throw?

"He probably has a couple more left in that arm," Miller said. "It doesn't matter how hard he throws it. He doesn't throw it very hard, but he's so tough."

Ever the humble pitcher, Krier just smiles at the idea of Thursday being his third career no-hitter, at the stillyoung amateur age of 25.

"I guess luck has been on my side a few times," he said, smiling. "I might want to start being careful. Maybe it'll run out on me."
