‘Capital’ Events Set For Viborg Today

BY RANDY DOCKENDORF
randy.dockendorf@yankton.net

VIBORG — Gov. Dennis Daugaard will talk with area residents about rural businesses, community development and health care reform at today's (Monday's) "Capital For A Day" in Viborg. Daugaard and his wife, Linda, are visiting the Turner County community for the "Capital For A Day" visit. The event, which rotates at sites around the state, allows citizens to interact with the governor face-to-face without traveling to Pierre. The Daugaards will take part in a number of activities while in town, according to Viborg city officials. The governor will take a walking tour of Main Street this morning and stop at five businesses. He will be accompanied by Mayor Kyle Christiansen and other City Council members, along with Glenn Petersen, president of the Viborg development corporation. The same party, along with other selected residents, will then take a longer tour of three other Viborg businesses. Also during the morning, the first lady will read for children at the Viborg library. She is scheduled to arrive at 10 a.m. and read for about 30 to 45 minutes. After completing his morning tours, the governor will attend a roundtable discussion regarding rural community development. The luncheon, by invitation only, will include local business owners, leaders of various local organizations and District 17 Reps. Ray Ring (D-Vermillion) and Nancy Rasmussen (R-Hurley). District 17 covers Turner and Clay counties, including Viborg. In the afternoon, Gov. Daugaard will host two events for the public at the Viborg Community Center on the south end of Main Street. At 1 p.m., the governor will lead a roundtable discussion focusing on national healthcare reform. At 2 p.m., he will host a constituent coffee hour where he will meet one-on-one with those in attendance. To conclude the day, Daugaard has agreed to tour the Viborg museum when he finishes at the Community Center, around 3 p.m. Viborg was founded in 1893 by Danish settlers, and Daugaard comes from Danish descent.

Noem's Office Now Accepting Applications For Fall Interns

WASHINGTON — Rep. Kristi Noem is accepting applications for fall internships in her Washington office, as well as in her offices in Sioux Falls, Rapid City and Watertown. Student interns in Rep. Noem's office will assist staff with various constituent service and communications projects, as well as assist with legislative research. Both South Dakota and Washington internships provide students with first-hand knowledge of the legislative process and the countless other functions of a congressional office. College students who are interested in interning in any of Rep. Noem's offices should submit a resume, cover letter and references to Christiana.Fraze@mail.house.gov by Aug. 12. For more information, contact Christiana Frazee at 202-225-2801.

‘One Book SD’ Author Set For Vermillion

VERMILLION — One Book South Dakota 2013 presents "The Long-Shining Waters," by Danielle Sosin, in an author-led book discussion and reading at the Edith B. Siegrist Vermillion Public Library at 7 p.m. Tuesday, July 23. If you missed a chance to engage with Danielle Sosin in Yankton, this is another opportunity to spend the evening with her. Event will be held in the Kozak Community Room. Refreshments will be served. Sign up and borrow a copy of the book at the Vermillion Public Library. Once you return the book, put your name in a drawing to keep the book. Drawing will be done at the author event. The book centers around Lake Superior, the north country, the great freshwater expanse. Frigid. Lethal. Wildly beautiful. "The Long-Shining Waters" presents three stories whose characters are separated by centuries and circumstances, yet connected across time by the place they inhabit. Edith B. Siegrist Vermillion Public Library is located at 18 Church St. in Vermillion. For questions or more information call 605-677-7060 or email vpl@sdl.net. Website: www.vermillionpubliclibrary.org/. This event is sponsored by the VPL Library, the South Dakota Center for the Book, and the South Dakota Humanities Council.

Steamboating Exhibit At Terr. Capitol

Rangers from Missouri National Recreational River will open the Dakota Territorial Capitol replica in Yankton's Riverside Park from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. today (Monday) through Thursday, July 25. This week's exhibit will be "Rollin' on the River." Historic photos and ranger commentary reveal the risks and rewards of steamboating on the Missouri. A steamboat officer from 1877 will be present on Tuesday to present a short program and talk about the model of the historic steamboat Far West that is on permanent display in the capitol. Visitors may also join the ranger for a walk to the Meridian Bridge and a short talk on the natural or cultural history of the Missouri River at 11:30 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.

Crest Road Closed At Dam Tuesday

The road that crosses Gavins Point Dam, also known as Crest Road or the spillway, will be closed Tuesday, July 23, from 8 a.m.-noon to conduct maintenance on the spillway. Motorists must find alternate routes.

Linda Daugaard To Address Rotary Club

PIERRE — South Dakota's First Lady will speak to the Yankton Rotary Club on Tuesday, July 23, regarding her most recent initiative, FosterOne. Linda Daugaard's new campaign aims to recruit more foster families across the state of South Dakota. "All children need meaningful connections to caring adults who can provide the support children need while their families work through difficult situations," the First Lady said. "Dedicated foster families within the child's community provide opportunities for youth to stay connected with their family, friends, culture and school." Communities across the state are in need of more foster families to meet the needs of children and youth of all ages, with a greater need for families who will support and care for teenagers, sibling groups and medically fragile children. There is also a need for Native American families who can care for children who are Native American. "All these children need is someone to open their heart and their home to them," said the First Lady. "Will you be the one?" The First Lady will continue to visit communities across the state this summer and fall, asking South Dakotans to commit to know more about becoming foster families. For more information about becoming a foster parent, and to find out more about the First Lady's efforts visit: www.FosterOneSD.org/.
