If you follow either Jeremy Hoeck (@jhoeck) or me (@JCimburek) on Twitter, you saw us ask for your questions over the past couple of days.

The result was posted online Wednesday afternoon, a video with Jeremy and me answering the questions that we received, as well as talking briefly about the Hall of Fame announcement by the University of South Dakota.

Interacting with readers is something we've tried to do on a regular basis, and is a big part of why we're active on social media. We have run a weekly sports chat for three years, but decided to take the rest of the summer off from that due to limited traffic. (We will bring it back on August 20 as we prepare for the school year.)

In order to fill that gap, we decided to try this. For now, it is a recorded segment, but we may consider making it a live event if we think it will draw enough traffic during the time slot and we figure out some technical issues. (The Press & Dakotan studio is not currently set up for internet.)

In our first edition, we tackled questions about USD men's basketball recruiting and the growth of soccer over the past decade. We also had a question asking "how I put up with" Jeremy, though I answered it during the week by saying the bigger question was how he puts up with me.

We plan to do this every Wednesday, at least until we restart the chat. Once the chat returns, we may continue it as a "post-chat" wrap-up show. As always, we'd love to know what you think and what you want to see. Tweet at either of us, or email sports@yankton.net with your comments.

Vargas, Royals Blank Twins 4-0 MINNEAPOLIS (AP) - Jason Vargas threw seven scoreless innings, Raul Ibanez homered in his second game for Kansas City and the Royals beat the Minnesota Twins 4-0 Wednesday. Vargas (8-3) allowed four singles and two walks while striking out five, allowing only two runners from a diluted Twins lineup to reach second base. Mike Moustakas and Jarrod Dyson hit RBI singles in the second inning against Kevin Correia (4-10), and that was all Vargas needed. With Joe Mauer missing, placed on the disabled list before the game because of a strained muscle on his right side, the Twins didn't cause Vargas any trouble. They were shut out for the sixth time this season and lost for the seventh time in their

USD Assistant Atkinson Rejoins Ryun Williams At Colorado State

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Colorado State head women's basketball coach Ryun Williams announced Tuesday the addition of three assistants, including Brooke Atkinson from the University of South Dakota.

Atkinson joins the Rams from USD, where she worked under Williams for one season before he was hired at CSU. In her three seasons with the Coyotes, she helped guide them to three postseason berths, including the team's first ever NCAA DI tournament appearance following a Summit League tournament championship in 2014. Prior to her time spent up north, Atkinson was an assistant coach from 2003-10 at New Mexico State. While there she helped lead the Aggies to three WAC championship games, and the team's first postseason appearance in 16 years in 2010. She was recognized for her efforts when she was promoted to second assistant in 2005, and she later won the school's Outstanding Coach Award in 2008. A Colorado native, Atkinson attended Westminster High School before beginning her collegiate playing career at Western Nebraska Community College. She then moved on to Wichita State, where she played for two season with the Shockers. According to the release from CSU, assistant coach Chad Lavin — another former Coyote coach — remains on the Rams staff, but will now serve as the director of women's basketball

Hallock Signs With MMC Chamberlain's Hunter Hallock, the son of former Lancer Travis Hallock, will attend Mount Marty College and play baseball for the Lancers, the institution announced on Wednesday. Hallock was a three-time all-state selection at the high school level, including first-team as a junior. This past spring he batted .533 with six doubles and 17 runs batted in. He also went 3-1 as a pitcher, posting a 0.71 earned run average and 47 strikeouts in 30 innings of work. He batted .538 as a junior and .457 as a sophomore. Hallock has also played for the Sioux Falls Cyclones base ball team during the summer. "We are getting an exceptional player in Hunter Hallock. He should be a great fit for the baseball program and the college," said MMC head baseball coach Andy Bernatow. "I am excited that we were able to keep Hunter in the state to play collegiate baseball and go to school. It is also an additional plus to see a family tradition of Mount Marty baseball continuing with the Hallock family.

The son of Travis and Lesley Hallock of Chamberlain, Hunter plans to major in exercise wellness at MMC. He will receive a Mount Marty College Honors Scholarship for his academic achievement in addition to a baseball scholarship and catholic award.

Mandy Koupal, basketball (2000-04) Mandy Koupal is perhaps the most accomplished basketball player in Coyote history. She was twice named National Division II Player of the Year (2003, 2004), a threetime All-American, and the only player in North Central Conference history to win three consecutive NCC Most Valuable Player Awards. Koupal scored a program-record 2,142 points (23.0 og) in just three seasons in Vermillion. South Dakota was 42-4 at home and 71-22 overall with Koupal in its lineup. Koupal shot 51 percent from the field, made 93 threepointers, had 195 assists, 121 blocks, 160 steals and averaged 11 rebounds per game. Koupal continues as the 10th-leading scorer (2,496 points) and 17th-leading rebounder (1,246) in Division II history. She is the NCC's alltime leader in both categories. She scored a program-record 40 points in a game against Augustana in 2003 and pulled down 26 rebounds in a game against North Dakota State that same vear. She also earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in both years she was eligible to make the team. Upon graduation, Koupal spent four years teaching fourth grade for the Watertown School District. She returned to USD and completed her master's degree in 2010 while serving as a graduate assistant coach for the Coyotes. She spent another two years on USD's staff before moving to Colorado State University for two seasons.

Josh Stamer, football (1997-2000)

Koupal recently returned to her hometown of Wagner, where she will teach and

Hallock

Stamer served six seasons in the NFL as a special teams specialist. He played five seasons with the Buffalo Bills (2003-07) and spent the 2008 season with the Tennessee Titans. Stamer played 90 games in the NFL and compiled 78 tackles (61 solo) and an interception. Before arriving in the NFL, Stamer registered 152 tackles, 15.5 sacks and 36 tackles-for-loss in three seasons for the Covotes. Stamer earned all-NCC honors following his junior and senior seasons and was a two-time academic all-NCC honoree. In his senior year in 2000, Stamer led the team with 71 tackles, six sacks and 21 tackles-for-loss, the third-highest single-season tally in program history. Stamer and his wife, Jessica, currently reside in Raleigh, N.C. They have a 3year-old son, Maximus. Stamer is using his master's degree in public accounting as a program manager at Lenovo, the worldwide leader in personal computers.

Molly (Wedel) Radigan, track and field/cross country (1998-2003) Radigan is the first female student-athlete at USD to earn All-America honors in cross country, indoor track and outdoor track in the same calendar year (1999) feat that has been duplicated once in the 15 years since. Radigan was a 12-time All-American at USD (10 times in track, twice in cross country) who won the 2003 outdoor national championship in the 10,000-meter run. She was a national runner-up three times - twice in the 5,000 and once in the 10,000 - and totaled seven top-four finishes at national track championships. Radigan qualified for three cross country national championship meets. She placed fourth at nationals as a freshman in 1998 and was third as a sophomore the following season when she was named Regional Cross Country Athlete of the Year. Radigan also qualified for the 2001 national

Radigan's program record meet and placed 37th.

in the 10,000 of 35:01 stood for 13 years before being surpassed this past spring. She graduated holding program records in the indoor 3,000 and 5,000 in addition to the outdoor 5,000 and 10,000. Radigan and her husband, Todd, have two daughters. Maya Jane and Callie. The couple owns Maya Jane's and Main Street Pub in downtown Vermillion.

Justin Devlin, swimmer (1996-2000) Devlin is a 12-time Allnerican who led the Cov otes to two NCC championships, four top-11 finishes at nationals, and became the program's first national champion in 2000 when he won the 200-yard breaststroke. Eight of Devlin's 12 All-America awards came in the 100 and 200 breaststrokes. The other four came as a member of medley relay teams. South Dakota's two NCC titles came in 1997 and 1999, Devlin's freshman and junior seasons, respectively. The Coyotes went on to place third at nationals in 1999, which remains the program's top placing. Devlin placed second and fourth in the 200 and 100 breaststrokes, respectively, at the 1999 national meet and finished second as a member of the Coyotes' 400-yard medley relay team. Devlin was the NCC's Rookie of the Year in 1997. He won three NCC breaststroke titles and set NCC records of 57.28s in the 100 and 2:02.77 in the 200 during his career.
