Yankton Will Host Inaugural Outdoor Target Champ.

Another prestigious archery tournament is headed to Yankton.

The National Field Archery Association (NFAA) will host the inaugural NFAA Outdoor Target Championships on Oct. 4-5, 2014, according to a release Thursday

The event will be a 2-day outdoor shoot featuring an NFAA 900 round on the first day and an NFAA Classic 600 round on the second day.

To celebrate the first year of the NFAA Outdoor tournament, the NFAA will offer a Professional Guarantee for the Male and Female Freestyle Divisions. The PMFS class will have a quaranteed first place payout of $2,500 and the PFFS class will have a guaranteed first place payout of $1,500. All additional professional payouts will be based on the NFAA payout chart, as outlined in the NFAA Constitution and Bylaws.

The NFAA 900 Round will consist of 5 ends of 6 arrows shot at three distances, beginning with the furthest distance. Cub distances will be 30-20-10 yards, Youth distances will be 50-40-30 yards and Young Adult/Adult/Senior distances will be 60-50-40 vards.

The NFAA Classic 600 Round will consist of four ends of five arrows shot at three distances, beginning with the closest distance. Cub distances will be 10-20-30 yards, Youth distances will be 30-40-50 yards and Young Adult/Adult/Senior distances will be 40-50-60 yards.

and Baltimore Ravens center Matt Birk was hired Thursday by the NFL as director of football devel-

The six-time Pro Bowl player and 2011 Walter Pavton Award winner as the league's man of the year spent the 2013 season as an NFL-NFLPA appeals officer. In his new role, Birk will be involved in administration of game-day operations, oversee the further development of the scouting combine and regional combines, as well as the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine game for college players.

"I'm very excited to begin this next chapter of my football career," Birk said. "It's a real honor for me to be entrusted with developing the game in so many different ways." Birk becomes the eighth former player to take a job at the NFL executive offices, joining Merton Hanks, Dwight Hollier, Patrick Kerney, James Thrash, David Tyree, Troy Vincent and Charles

Vincent is the league's top executive for foothall operations

"Matt's experience as a terrific NFL player, a model citizen in his community and a reputation as a forward-thinking leader make him ideally suited for this role." Vincent said.
