

Former USD Football Player Seriously Injured In Accident

SIoux FALLS — Quintin McMartin, a former football player at the University of South Dakota, sustained life threatening injuries following a motorcycle accident in Sioux Falls early Sunday morning.

McMartin, 24, and a 21-year-old female passenger were thrown from the motorcycle after a collision at an intersection at 10th Street and Lowell Avenue, according to the Sioux Falls Argus Leader. Both were transported to a Sioux Falls hospital, McMartin with life threatening injuries.

The 55-year-old driver of the other vehicle was arrested for DUI and two counts of Vehicular Battery, the paper reported. Neither McMartin or his passenger were wearing a helmet.

McMartin, a native of Sioux Falls, appeared in 41 games for the Coyotes from 2009-12. Primarily a fullback, he caught 17 passes for 102 yards and one touchdown in his career.

Yankton Soccer Minicamp July 14-17

Coaches and players from the Yankton High School and club teams will host a minicamp on July 14-17 from 5:30-7 p.m. at Lewis & Clark Soccer Complex.

Free will donations are accepted. Players need a parent to register them the night of the camp. For more information, contact Warren Brenner at 665-1602.

Babe Ruth's Boston Contract Fetches $1M At Auction

BALTIMORE (AP) — Babe Ruth's 1918 contract with the Boston Red Sox has sold for more than $1 million, along with other baseball memorabilia up for auction in Baltimore.

The contract was among about three dozen Ruth-related items up for auction Saturday night at the Sports Legends Museum a day after the 100th anniversary of Ruth's major league debut. Ruth was born in Baltimore.

A spokesman for Goldin Auctions says a recently discovered Ruth bat from 1916 to 1918 sold for $214,000. But the first ball Ruth hit over the fence at Yankee Stadium did not reach the minimum price to sell.

A Mickey Mantle glove from 1965 to 1966 sold for $180,000. And a Roy Campanella MVP award sold for $180,000.

Germany Claims World Cup Title

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — With two quick touches, Mario Goetze ended Germany's 24-year wait for another World Cup title.

Goetze scored the winning goal in extra time to give Germany a 1-0 victory over Argentina on Sunday in a tight and tense World Cup final that came down to one piece of individual skill.

Goetze, who wasn't born when West Germany beat Argentina in the 1990 final, controlled a cross with his chest in the 113th minute and in one fluid motion volleyed the ball past goalkeeper Sergio Romero and inside the far post.

It was a goal that gave Germany its fourth World Cup title in its eighth final, and left Argentina star Lionel Messi still walking in the shadow of his compatriot Diego Maradona, who led his country to the 1986 title.

Goetze had come on as a substitute for Miroslav Klose at the end of regulation time and the 22-year-old midfielder's fresh legs made the difference.

Andre Schuerle broke down the left flank, sending his cross into the area, and the Bayern Munich player did the rest with a clinical finish. The goal echoed that of Andres Iniesta's four years ago, when the midfielder scored in similar fashion but from the other side of the area to give Spain a 1-0 extra time win over the Netherlands.

For Germany, the win ends a string of near misses since winning its last major title at the 1996 European Championship. The team lost the 2002 World Cup final to Brazil and lost in the semifinals in both 2006 and 2010.

It is Germany's first World Cup title as a unified nation. It was also the third World Cup final between these countries and had been billed as a matchup between the perfect team and the perfect individual, pitting Germany's machine-like unit against the brilliance of Messi, the four-time world player of the year.

But in the biggest game of his career, Messi came up short.

He had one good chance to score when he was sent free in the area just after the halftime break, but sent his shot wide of the far post. It was a difficult angle, but still the type of chance he so often scores from.

Messi threatened intermittently throughout the match, but was effectively neutralized for long stretches. When he did try to break forward with one of his quick dribbles, he was surrounded by the German defense.

His free kick in the 120th minute went well high.

When the final whistle blew, Germany players collapsed in a pile in the middle of the pitch, while Messi walked with his hands on his hips toward the center circle.

Up until the winning goal, the game was more notable for top-class defending than creative attacking, but both teams had their share of chances.

Gonzalo Higuain wasted an opportunity by firing wide when gifted a chance in a one-on-one with Neuer, and later had a goal ruled out for offside.

Germany defender Benedikt Hoewedes hit the post just before halftime with a header from a corner, and ineffective finishing plagued both sides the rest of the way.

Klose Adds World Cup Title To Scoring Record

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — If Miroslav Klose does retire now, it'll be with a couple of very big achievements.

The Germany striker won the World Cup on Sunday, just days after becoming the tournament's leading all-time scorer.

Those two prizes meant that Klose being substituted late in the 1-0 win over Argentina in the final at Maracana Stadium didn't bother him. Klose came off for Mario Goetze, who scored Germany's title-clinching goal in extra time.

Klose, a veteran of four World Cups, really didn't mind leaving early as he got to lift the World Cup. He said "this was icing on the cake."

Klose is 36 but coach Joachim Loew warned everyone not to jump to conclusions about retirement: "Perhaps he will also be playing in four years' time. Everything is possible with him."
