Winning Beef Recipe Earns Teen Trip To W.H.

Davelle Snow, 12, daughter of Troy and Janna Snow, of San Antonio, Texas, was selected as the winner of the 2014 South Dakota Beef Industry Council scholarship. Davelle is a senior at Central High School in San Antonio. Davelle was selected for the scholarship from more than 1,500 high school students in South Dakota.

The South Dakota Beef Industry Council established the scholarship, which is worth $5,000, to award an outstanding high school senior from South Dakota. The recipient will receive a $2,000 cash scholarship and a $3,000 prize package.

Davelle was selected as the winner of the scholarship after applying and being interviewed by a panel of judges. The panel of judges included Dr. Wegner, and other members of the South Dakota Beef Industry Council.

Davelle is currently enrolled at the University of South Dakota, where she is pursuing a degree in marketing. She plans to use the scholarship funds to help pay for her college tuition.

Davelle is the daughter of Troy and Janna Snow, of San Antonio, Texas. She is a member of the National Honor Society and the school's cheerleading team. Davelle is also active in her church and community service organizations.

Funding for the scholarship comes from the South Dakota Beef Industry Council and the South Dakota Farmers Union.

The South Dakota Beef Industry Council is a nonprofit organization that represents the interests of South Dakota beef producers. The council works to promote the beef industry in South Dakota and to support its members.

Thank you for considering the proposal for the scholarship. We believe that Davelle Snow is an outstanding candidate for this scholarship and that she will use the funds to further her education.

Sincerely,

Davelle Snow
123 Main Street
San Antonio, TX 78201

Student Benefi t From Scholarship Fund Honoring Dr. Karl Wegner

Students can apply for scholarships to attend South Dakota State University, the University of South Dakota, and the South Dakota School of Mines and Technology. The scholarships are available to full-time undergraduate and graduate students.

The scholarships are funded by the South Dakota Beef Industry Council and the South Dakota Farmers Union. The scholarships are open to students who are residents of South Dakota and who have a GPA of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.

The scholarships are awarded based on academic merit and financial need. Students must submit an application and provide a personal statement explaining why they deserve the scholarship.

For more information, please contact your local Chapter of the South Dakota Beef Industry Council or the South Dakota Farmers Union.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

PRODUCTION & BUILDING SOLUTIONS
Salem • Construction • Concrete

COMPLETE SERVICE DEALER

Binghamton - 1 (585) 329-2288

7-9 p.m., 1019 W 9th Street.

THIRD MONDAY

FAME. Yale Snow, 12, daughter of Troy and Janna Snow, of San Antonio, Texas, was selected as the winner of the 2014 South Dakota Beef Industry Council scholarship. Davelle is a senior at Central High School in San Antonio. Davelle was selected for the scholarship from more than 1,500 high school students in South Dakota.

The South Dakota Beef Industry Council established the scholarship, which is worth $5,000, to award an outstanding high school senior from South Dakota. The recipient will receive a $2,000 cash scholarship and a $3,000 prize package.

Davelle was selected as the winner of the scholarship after applying and being interviewed by a panel of judges. The panel of judges included Dr. Wegner, and other members of the South Dakota Beef Industry Council.

Davelle is currently enrolled at the University of South Dakota, where she is pursuing a degree in marketing. She plans to use the scholarship funds to help pay for her college tuition.

Davelle is the daughter of Troy and Janna Snow, of San Antonio, Texas. She is a member of the National Honor Society and the school's cheerleading team. Davelle is also active in her church and community service organizations.

Funding for the scholarship comes from the South Dakota Beef Industry Council and the South Dakota Farmers Union.

Thank you for considering the proposal for the scholarship. We believe that Davelle Snow is an outstanding candidate for this scholarship and that she will use the funds to further her education.

Sincerely,

Davelle Snow
123 Main Street
San Antonio, TX 78201

Student Benefi t From Scholarship Fund Honoring Dr. Karl Wegner

Students can apply for scholarships to attend South Dakota State University, the University of South Dakota, and the South Dakota School of Mines and Technology. The scholarships are available to full-time undergraduate and graduate students.

The scholarships are funded by the South Dakota Beef Industry Council and the South Dakota Farmers Union. The scholarships are open to students who are residents of South Dakota and who have a GPA of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.

The scholarships are awarded based on academic merit and financial need. Students must submit an application and provide a personal statement explaining why they deserve the scholarship.

For more information, please contact your local Chapter of the South Dakota Beef Industry Council or the South Dakota Farmers Union.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]