Donald Thompson

Donald D. Thompson, age 91, of Yankton, South Dakota, passed away peacefully Wednesday, July 23, 2014, at Avera Sister James Care Center in Yankton.

Funeral Services will be 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, July 30, 2014, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Yankton with Reverend David Lund officiating. Burial will be in the Garden of Memories Cemetery in Yankton.

Thompson

Kendall Lille, Jordan Gillmore, Jennifer Hildebrand, Shari Lucas and Carla Sakrison.

Don Thompson was born August 19, 1922, in Volin, South Dakota to Clarence and Clara (Bruget) Thompson. He was baptized and confirmed at Zion Lutheran Church in rural Volin, attended Central Grade School and graduated from Volin High School in 1940. After high school, Don continued to work on the family farm with his dad and later belonged to the Yankton County Cattle Feeder's Association, the South Dakota Cattlemen's Association and National Cattlemen's Association and won many soil awards. He met Mary Frances Biggerstaff at the Yankton Playhouse and later married Mary Fran on August 10, 1963 in Volin. They purchased the family farm, where they lived until moving to Yankton in 1998.

Don loved to sing and was the soloist for many funerals and weddings. He sang in a Barbershop Quartet, the church choir and for 60 years with the Double Eagle Chorus. In July of 1953, he sang with the Double Eagle Chorus at the Dedication of the Shrine of Democracy at Mount Rushmore, at which President Dwight D. Eisenhower was in attendance. Don was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Yankton, the Sons of Norway, St. John's Masonic Lodge No. 1 A.F. & A.M. and a staunch Republican who ran as the Republican Candidate for District 19 Senate Seat in 1990.

Don was a very intelligent man who was humble but confident and always willing to give. He loved his family and would always take time to come in from the field to saddle up the horses for his grandchildren. He enjoyed picking the best steer from the herd so he could grill the best steaks for his family, camping with the Good Sam group, fishing and getting on the four wheeler to check on the cattle or the crops back in the creek. He would make it a point to stop his day to eat wild chokecherries. After retirement, he was known for baking sour cream rhubarb pies, leise and shinglebread.

Survivors include his wife of 50 years, Mary Frances Thompson of Yankton; daughter, Debra (Doug) Lillie of Yankton and their children; Jordan (Darren) Gillmore, Justin, Kendall and Kyler; son, Todd (Debbie) Thompson of Ethan, South Dakota and their son, Tate; step-daughter, Dee (Bob) Roach of Blue Springs, Missouri and their children: Paul, Jamie (Lea Ann), and Jennifer (Bill); step-son, Dr. Larry (Cheryl) Cook of Nevada City, California and their daughters: Shari (Jim) and Carla (John); 14 great grandchildren; three great great grandchildren; sister, Deodada Cowley of Baltic, South Dakota; seven nieces and nephews; and many great and great great nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, brother-in-law, Paul Cowley, nephews Dennis Duane Hirsch and Jeff Cowley and many beloved aunts and uncles.

Memorials may be directed to the Trinity Lutheran Church Organ Fund.

Adolph 'Joe' Sejnoha

Joe Sejnoha, age 87 of Yankton, passed away Saturday, July 26, 2014 at Avera Yankton Care Center, Yankton, SD.

Visitations will be from 5-7 p.m. Tuesday, July 29, 2014 at the Opsahl-Kostel Funeral Home and Crematory, Yankton with the family present.

Visitations will resume from 1-2 p.m. Wednesday, July 30, 2014 at the Opsahl-Kostel Memorial Chapel in Tyndall.

Sejnoha

December 28, 1946.

After his return, Joe married the love of his life, Enid Dorraine Avery on November 18, 1950. Joe's life was dedicated to his family and his first thoughts were always about his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Over the years, Joe was involved in many endeavors; farming, residential construction, owning and operating Rest Haven Assisted Living Center, just to name a few. Joe was never afraid of hard work or bringing an idea to reality. Even after retiring he went back to work part time for John A. Conkling Distributing (Joe always did enjoy a good, cold beer) until he retired again at the age of 82.

Joe was an avid St. Louis Cardinals fan since he was a boy. He also enjoyed gardening, hunting, fishing and spending time with his family. One of his greatest enjoyments was Czech music and playing the accordion, along with several other musical instruments. He was very proud of one of his biggest personal accomplishments — organizing the Sejnoha Memorial Band — a band dedicated to the memory of his father's band, The Sejnoha Jr. Band. This band performed and recorded original, hand written music that was handed down from his ancestors.

Joe is survived by his wife, Enid; children: Cheryl (Bruce) Alver, Jim Sejnoha, Gary (Dianne) Sejnoha, Elaine (Steve) Talley, eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren; sisters: Helen Hovorka, Rose Novak and Evelyn (Joe) Schuch; brother-in-law, Roger Jones; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, sisters, Libby Hamberger and Emma Jones, 3 brothers-in-law and 1 great-grandson.

Dale Ugofsky

Dale Ugofsky, age 66 of Sioux Falls, SD and formerly of Yankton, SD passed away Thursday, July 24, 2014 at his residence surrounded by his family in Sioux Falls, SD after an extended illness.

Memorial services will be 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, July 29, 2014 at the First United Methodist Church, Yankton, with Rev. Ron Johnson officiating. Private burial of the cremated remains will be at a later date.

Visitations will be one hour prior to the service at the church.

The Opsahl-Kostel Funeral Home & Crematory, Yankton, is assisting with service details.

Dale Ugofsky was born May 28, 1948 to Ray and Mabel (Rokusek) Ugofsky in Yankton, SD. He was baptized on June 27, 1948 and confirmed on September 18, 1960. Dale married Mary Helen Talich on October 15, 1966 in Lesterville, SD and to this union, three children were born: Brooks, Jay and Tara.

Dale shingled roofs in the Utica, and Yankton area for four years. The family moved to Chamberlain in 1969 where Dale worked at Verschoor Motor Company. In 1973, they returned to Yankton where Dale began employment at Wilson Trailer Company. He was employed there for 21 years when he had his first battle with cancer. From that time on, he worked part time in maintenance at local hotels. Dale loved music and played bass guitar in the Hank & Luther and Midnight Special band. He really enjoyed spending time with his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and his many friends and relatives.

Dale is survived by his wife, Mary of Sioux Falls, SD; sons, Brooks (Tammy) of Yankton, SD and Jay (Stacie) of Harrisburg, SD; daughter, Tara (Brian) Hair of Sioux Falls, SD; eight grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, brother, Duane, and sisters: Carol, Donna and Mary Lou.
