Neb. Vietnam Veterans Plan Reunion In Norfolk

NORFOLK, Neb. — When the Nebraska Vietnam Veterans hold their annual reunion in mid-August, it will mark 30 years, so local committee members felt it had to be special. The reunion, is slated for the Divots DeVent Center Aug. 14-17 and will include a wide range of entertainment and seminars. Legendary recording artist Lee Greenwood will entertain nearly 1,000 Vietnam vets and their families Saturday, Aug. 16, at the Divots DeVents Center, Norfolk, Nebraska. Greenwood is best known for his signature song, "God Bless the USA."

cluding songs such as "Louie, Louie" and "Kicks." This get-together has become one of the premier reunions for Vietnam vets bringing brother veterans and their families together from various parts of Nebraska. It is to be emphasized that this is not just for Nebraska veterans as veterans from 11 other states are already registered for 2014 reunion. The gathering provides fellow vets the opportunity to rekindle friendships from past Vietnam reunions, plus the opportunity to meet new friends who are first timers to the event. Although it originated as a reunion for soldiers who served in the Vietnam War, it is open to any veteran, their spouses, family members and guests including Iraq and Afghanistan veterans. Each registration includes daily programs, speakers, workshops, Thursday barbecue, Sunday "survivors" breakfast plus three evenings of entertainment plus a commemorative T-shirt. For further information and/or to print out a registration, a website has been set up: www.vetsreunion.com/. Additional information and questions can be directed to Bruce or Patty Bounds at (402) 841-5524. The Nebraska Vietnam Veterans Reunion group is also on Facebook, so veterans and families are encouraged to "like" them there also for updates and further information.

South Dakota International Pageant Apps. Being Accepted

SIoux FALLS — Applications are now being accepted for six new South Dakota International Pageant titleholders. The South Dakota International Pageant is the state's premier pageant and only pageant system that has divisions for ages 5-56 years old. Each year, six new titleholders are crowned in the fall as the new Little Miss, Young Miss, Junior Miss, Teen, Miss and Mrs. South Dakota International. Pageant Director Jessie Brower brought the International Pageant system to South Dakota in 2010 after looking for a pageant that recognized the accomplishments of today's woman. The youth pageants are natural pageants that focus on good etiquette and manners. Around the world, women are finding that this pageant system to be an opportunity to work with others to become positive role models. Being the premier pageant for women has given the International Pageant system a chance to open doors for women around the world. The entry deadline is Sept. 15. Applications, additional details about the pageant and a listing of the current titleholders can be found online at www.SDPageants.com. To receive an application via mail or for more information, contact Jessie Brower at (605) 360-1117. The South Dakota International Pageant will take place on Sunday, Oct. 19, at the Sioux Falls Orpheum Theatre beginning at 6 p.m. Tickets are available prior to the event or may be purchased at the door.
