Participants are asked to bring appropriate soccer gear and plenty of water. Cost is a free-will donation. For more information, contact Warren Brenner at 605-665-1602 or Tyler Schuring at 605-380-7667.

in part: "We're all behind you, let's go one step closer an get to the final."
Women's coach Mark Sampson also attempted to rally support by providing fans back home an excuse to be late for work Thursday.

Because the game didn't start until midnight in England, Sampson and the nation's Football Federation on Twitter posted a "late-to-work" form that's already signed by the coach.

Reds: Phillips was back in the lineup, batting leadoff, after missing the past two games with sore hands. He went 1 for 3.
UP NEXT
Twins: Kyle Gibson (5-6) opens a four-game series in Kansas City that will complete a 10-game trip. He's 4-2 with a 2.68 ERA in six starts against the Royals.

Reds: Following a day off, they complete a homestand against Milwaukee. Michael Lorenzen (3-2) starts the opener. The Reds have won 17 of their past 23 against the Brewers at Great American Ball Park.

more than 53,000. The crowd would've been would have been much larger had England not eliminated the host country in the quarterfinals last weekend.

The Lionesses have already created a buzz back home as just the third English team — including the men — to reach a World Cup semifinal, joining the 1966 champion and 1990 men's squads.

England began the day by receiving a royal pep talk from Prince William, who spoke to the players and staff by phone.

Manchester United and English national team captain Wayne Rooney has become a fan. Rooney posted a note of support on his Twitter account Wednesday, writing

"I thought it was a strike myself," Hamilton said. "I wasn't surprised (by the throw)."

Brian Dozer led off the sixth with a double — his AL-leading 44th extra-base hit — and came around on a pair of groundouts.

AGAINST THAT OTHER LEAGUE
The Twins are 8-10 in interleague play this season. The Reds are 5-9.

STREAKS
Todd Frazier's hitting streak ended at nine games. Marlon Byrd extended his to a season-high seven games. Phillips extended his streak to seven games.

TRAINER'S ROOM
Twins: LF Shane Robinson was back in the lineup after sitting out Tuesday's game with a stomach ailment. One of Cueto's pitches hit him above the left elbow in the fifth, and he came out of the game an inning later because of the sore arm.

Herrmann's throwing error. May gave up six hits and fanned six in 6 1-3 innings.

Brandon Phillips led off the third with a double, advanced on May's wild pitch and scored on Votto's flyout.

May had walked only 15 batters all season, but walked Billy Hamilton and Phillips with one out in the fifth. Hamilton headed for third on a full-count pitch to Votto. It turned out to be ball four, but Herrmann threw to third base anyway, thinking it was strike three.

The catcher's high throw went into left field, allowing Hamilton to score easily for a 2-0 lead.

"I thought it was a strike myself," Hamilton said. "I wasn't surprised (by the throw)."

Brian Dozer led off the sixth with a double — his AL-leading 44th extra-base hit — and came around on a pair of groundouts.
