

UCC Holding Worship In The Park

The United Church of Christ (Congregational) will be holding its regular Sunday worship in Riverside Park this coming Sunday, July 12, at 10 a.m. We would love to have you join us at Shelter No. 3 for this special service as we embrace the wonders of God's handiwork.

Feel free to bring a blanket or lawn chair to provide a comfortable outdoor seat. Following the service a potluck picnic will be held. Drinks and tableware will be provided. We ask those attending to bring a dish to share. For a special treat bringing back memories of "yesteryear" some fun games are being planned as well. "Where ever you are on life's journey you are welcome."

In the case of inclement weather, the service will be relocated to the United Church of Christ (Congregational) church at 210 W. 5th St., Yankton.

Peace Church Service At Riverside Park

Peace Church of Yankton will hold a service in Riverside Park at 11:30 a.m. Sunday, July 12. Shelter No. 7, on the west side of the park, south of the Territorial Capitol Replica, has been selected because it is easily accessible.

A potluck picnic will follow, complete with hot dogs cooked on the grills.

Peace Church members welcome everyone. The congregation is small so events such as this "picnic in the park" can be easily planned and implemented.

Trinity Lutheran Church Bible Day Camp

Trinity Lutheran Church of Yankton will be hosting Bible day camp July 27-30, for K-5th graders from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. daily at Memorial Park in the concrete shelter at the corner of 19th and Douglas. Youth will gather all week for fun, fellowship and learning. All are invited to the Day Camp program to get a taste of camp.

This year's theme is "No Matter What." To kick the week off, join us for an Ice-Cream Social on Sunday, July 26, at 7 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church to meet the counselors and fellow campers.

Leading the learning and fun are a group of camp counselors from Lutherans Outdoors — NeSoDak. Lutherans Outdoors in South Dakota welcomes all to explore and experience Christ's love in community and creation. Day Camp is a ministry that brings camp to the youth in our local communities.

A registration fee of $20 will be matched by Trinity Lutheran Church to help defray costs for the Lutherans Outdoors staff.

For registration information, please contact Pam at 665-7415.

St. Boniface Parish Bazaar Set

MENOMINEE, Neb. — The St. Boniface Parish Broasted Chicken Dinner & Bazaar will be held in Menominee, Nebraska, on Sunday, July 26. Serving will be from 4-8 p.m.

Tournaments and many other activities will be available.

Kids Talk About God

Why Does The Bible Say Rich People Will Fade In The Midst Of Their Pursuits?

BY CAREY KINSOLVING AND FRIENDS

"You are not supposed to live on toys because you cannot take them to heaven," says Adrienne, 8.

Adults try to live on toys, too. The difference is that adults make payments on their toys. Television commercials look so slick, but no manufacturer's toy has ever filled the void in a customer's soul. That vacuum in our souls is reserved for an infinite, loving God.

"You can't take all your stuff to heaven. Your children would have to get it — plus, they will fight over it," says Jacob, 9.

When it comes to dividing estates of deceased parents among surviving children, it's a real-life drama.

"Rich people fade away because they concentrate on money and not God and Jesus. They should keep their eye on God and Jesus," says Landen, 7.

The Bible is not against wealth. Abraham, the father of all believers, was rich. The Bible does, however, warn against placing our hope in riches because they will fade.

"People should concentrate on heavenly things," says Grant, 11. "If God has blessed you financially, you should use it to glorify Him. You should give it to the needy or to places where you can help people."

Wealth brings responsibility. The Christian attitude is that we are stewards of all property under our control. Everything belongs to God. We are accountable to him for how it is used.

Jesus told a story of a man who entrusted his three servants with different amounts of money. Two of the three invested wisely and secured a profit for their master, but one hid his money because he was afraid. Jesus rewarded the productive servants, but punished the fearful, unprofitable servant (Matthew 25:14-30).

"We should set for ourselves treasures in heaven, not treasures on Earth because they will fade away," says Ransom, 8. The Bible says the wealthy in their pursuits are like flowers in the field that fade away under the sun's scorching heat (James 1:10-11).

Christians with divided loyalties live unstable lives. They flip-flop between love of God and love of riches. The double-minded Christian is a bundle of mixed messages and contradictions.

"Some people think only about money and do not accept Christ. When they die, they do not go to heaven," says Allen, 11.

This is the ultimate loss. In God's economy, if you own the entire world but lose your soul, you're busted — bankrupt forever.

So great is our tendency to depend on wealth to the exclusion of God that Jesus said it's easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into his kingdom. It's practically a miracle whenever wealthy people humble themselves to trust in the one who gave up the riches of heaven to die on a shameful cross to pay for our sins.

Think about this: Truly wealthy people think of themselves in relation to God, not their property.

Memorize this truth: "For no sooner has the sun risen with a burning heat than it withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beautiful appearance perishes. So the rich man also will fade away in his pursuits" (James 1:11).

Questions to ask: Are you truly wealthy? Do you know the riches of fellowship with God? Do you know the peace that comes from being content in all circumstances? If you're a Christian whom God has prospered, are you looking for opportunities to invest in the advancement of God's kingdom?

Pope Francis Changes In Burger King Before Mass In Bolivia

BY CARLOS VALDEZ

Associated Press

SANTA CRUZ, Bolivia — Burger King has long been providing quick meals. Pope Francis has now used for a quick change.

With hundreds of thousands of Catholic faithful waiting, Pope Francis needed a place to don his vestments to celebrate Mass at the Christ the Redeemer square in Santa Cruz. He had just spent more than 30 minutes in his popemobile, waving to thousands lined up on the streets as he arriving to the square for service.

Enter the restaurant known for Whoppers and fries.

The famously unpretentious pope used the fast food joint, which was closed for the morning for the papal visit, before walking to the nearby altar and beginning the Mass.

Alfredo Troche, manager of the Burger King, said the papal entourage had approached the restaurant and "asked for help because this was an appropriate place and we had closed" to customers.

Minutes later, during his homily, Francis blasted consumerism. He said that by materialistic logic, everything becomes an object that can be consumed and negotiated.

The company wasted no time in letting the world of the papal visit. Even before Mass had ended, the restaurant put a post on Facebook thanking the pope "for choosing the BK restaurant as your sacristy."

It also included an advertisement-like image showing the pope beneath a Burger King logo and the words: "There are visits that don't just bring joy to your spirit, but also feed it."
