1890 Band In Free Concert In The Park

Yankton Area Arts, with the support of the City of Yankton, will present the 1890 Band in concert at 8 p.m. at Riverside Park Amphitheatre tonight (Tuesday). The Tabor 1890 Band was formed by Czech immigrants in the late 19th century and their original music was performed in Tabor, South Dakota. The music was written in Czechoslovakia in 1890 giving the band its name. The 1890 Band has performed at Tabor's Czech Days every year since the first celebration 67 years ago. Many musicians have taken part over the years and CDs of the music are still available from Tabor's Chamber of Commerce. This concert is a part of the free Tuesday Summer Concert Series sponsored by Yankton Area Arts and the City of Yankton in which the Yankton Summer Band performs six Tuesday concerts and is followed by five subsequent pops concerts through Aug. 4. In addition to the July 14 concert, remaining concerts in the series are: C.J. Kocher Little Big Band on July 21; Not Yet Almost Famous Bassoon Band on July 28; and Main Avenue Warehouse on Aug. 4.

Cub Scout 'Swim To Be A Scout' Event

Cub Scout Pack No. 102 of Yankton is holding a "Swim to Be a Scout" event at the Memorial Park swimming pool in Yankton Wednesday, July 15, from 6-7 p.m. All kids (accompanied by their parents) interested in being a Cub Scout are welcome to attend. Appropriate fees do apply. For more information, call Amy Tejral at 661-6200.

Gavins Point Dam Road Closed

Crest Road, the road that crosses the Gavins Point Dam will be closed from 8 a.m. Wednesday July 15, through 5 p.m. Friday July 17. This closure will include nighttime hours. The public is asked to plan on an alternate route of travel during this time. The closure is a result of the inspection, repair and painting of the spillway gates. There will be periodic closures throughout duration of the construction, which will continue into the fall. People can stay informed about upcoming road closures by checking www.nwo.usace.army.mil/gavinspoint or by calling (402) 667-2546.

USD To Host Social Work Conference

VERMILLION — The University of South Dakota, the USD School of Health Sciences and the USD Department of Social Work are hosting faculty and experts from across the country July 15-17 for the annual gathering of the National Institute for Social Work and Human Services in Rural Areas. Among key themes of the 40th annual conference are issues related to Native Americans, mental and physical health issues related to residents of rural communities, challenges in rural social work and preparing social workers to work in rural areas. The conference's opening session begins at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, July 15, and features presentations and discussions about Native American issues and traditions. The evening banquet on Thursday, July 16 is highlighted by a keynote presentation by Michael Lawler, Ph.D., MSW on the well-being of children in rural communities. Lawler is dean of the School of Health Sciences at the University of South Dakota, and he is also a professor in the USD Department of Social Work. Most conference events will take place in the Muenster University Center on the USD campus. Details: <https://sites.google.com/site/swruralconference2015/>

Star Partners Fund Needed Leadership Programs For South Dakota FFA Foundation

BATH — The South Dakota FFA has been a major part of the spirit of South Dakota's youth and agriculture for more than 86 years. The Star Partner Program joins the efforts of SD businesses and organizations with FFA's mission of developing premier leadership, personal growth and career success for youth involved in agriculture education. "The need to build partnerships in support of local and state agricultural education programs continues to grow," said Gerri Ann Eide, executive director of the South Dakota FFA Foundation. "These partners provide quality leadership training for our FFA members, ensuring we have trained employees for the future of the production and business sides of South Dakota agriculture. Our star partners make a huge difference for members through high school, collegiate, advisor and alumni events!" The South Dakota FFA Foundation's Star Partner program welcomes a growing list of supporters that see the value of South Dakota FFA and agricultural education at both the local and state level: Distinguished Star Partners — Northland Ford Dealers
 • 5 Star Partners — Monsanto
 • 3 Star Partners — ADM Benson Quinn; CHS Foundation and North Central Farmers Elevator
 • 2 Star Partners — SD Wheat Growers; South Dakota Soybean Research and Promotion Council, and Wilbur Ellis
 • 1 Star Partners — BASF, Butler Machinery; Croplan by Winfield; DuPont Pioneer; East River Electric; Farm Credit Services of Americas; Hanson Associates LLC; Midwest Ag Supply; RDO Equipment (Aberdeen; Webster, Redfield; Sioux Falls; Rapid City); SD Corn Utilization Council; US Army/ Army ROTC; Zoetis; and C & B Operations, LLC (Gettysburg; Selby; Roscoe; Miller; Freeman; Yankton; Wagner; and Mitchell). Star Partner Program support provides resources for the South Dakota FFA Association, South Dakota FFA Alumni, South Dakota Association of Agricultural Educators, South Dakota FFA Foundation, post secondary agricultural events, and agricultural education at South Dakota State University. "It's a win-win partnership as our agriculture education programs receive valuable support to prepare future employees for agricultural careers and develop skills to provide leadership for their local communities, while at the same time businesses and organizations receive year-long recognition for their partnership," says Eide. For a complete listing of South Dakota FFA Foundation Star Partners visit www.sdffafoundation.org. The South Dakota FFA Foundation partners with individuals and businesses to provide resources that promote and enhance premier leadership, personal growth and career success for South Dakota youth in Agricultural Education. For more information about the South Dakota FFA Foundation, contact executive director Gerri Ann Eide at 605-765-4865 or visit us on the web at www.sdffafoundation.org.
