Hy-Vee American Macaroni Salad Recalled

WEST DES MOINES, Iowa — D&D Foods, Inc., based in Omaha, Nebraska, is recalling three-pound containers of Hy-Vee American Macaroni Salad because they were incorrectly labeled and may contain undeclared milk and wheat (gluten). People who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to milk and wheat (gluten) run the risk of serious or life-threatening allergic reaction if they consume these products.

The mislabeled 3-pound Hy-Vee American Macaroni Salad product was distributed by D&D Foods, a wholly owned subsidiary of Hy-Vee, Inc., to all of Hy-Vee's 236 grocery stores located in Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

The affected product is typically sold in stores' ready-to-eat refrigerated cases near the delicatessen. It is packaged in a frosted clear plastic tub with a black plastic lid. The recalled product is labeled as "Hy-Vee American Macaroni Salad" on the lid but "Hy-Vee Dijon Mustard Potato Salad" on the tub. The product is actually Hy-Vee American Macaroni Salad containing milk and wheat (gluten) ingredients, which are not declared on the tub.

The recalled product has a best if used date of "7/31/2015" and a production lot code of "15177D" located on the side of the frosted clear tub. Only one product size and lot are affected by this recall.

No illnesses have been reported to date in connection with this problem.

The recall was initiated after the incorrect packaging was discovered during routine product review.

Consumers who have purchased Hy-Vee American Macaroni Salad in these mismarked containers are urged to return it to any nearby Hy-Vee store for a full refund. Consumers with questions may contact Hy-Vee Customer Care representatives 24 hours a day, seven days a week at 1-800-722-4098.

4-H

Open Class Returning To Yankton Co.

Youth and adults will once again be able to exhibit open class exhibits at the Yankton County 4-H Achievement Days.

The 2015 Achievement Days — set for Friday, July 31 through Sunday, Aug. 2 — will be open to photography; pie; and specialty decorated cupcake, cake pop, cookie and frosted cake exhibits.

The change is one of many Yankton County 4-H is making at this year's Achievement Days to encourage more community members to get involved.

"We want 4-H and Achievement Days to be a community event," said Stephanie Siebrandt, Yankton County 4-H Program Assistant. "To do that, we needed to provide more activities the community could be involved in."

Yankton County 4-H will continue to host a 4-H Supper and the numerous livestock shows. New additions to the Achievement Days schedule include a youth carnival and watermelon eating contest, both open to the public.

"There will be a lot to see during this summer's Achievement Days," Siebrandt said. "We are hoping people come Saturday morning to see the animals and exhibits and stay all day for the activities."
