Mystery Feature Set For Million Cups

A mystery will be featured at Wednesday's 1 Million Cups meeting, set for 9 a.m. at the Avera Professional Pavilion. This meeting is open to the public.

Contact Center Supplying Backpacks

The Contact Center will be taking applications for low-income families needing help with school backpacks for their children for the coming school year.

Last year, 176 children were provided a voucher for a backpack. Funding for this project is provided by local donations.

This year, the Contact Center will be supplying the backpack again for grades K-8. Families must sign up their children by Aug. 20. They may sign up by coming into the Contact office located in the County Government Center, lower level. Families must have an active SNAP Card to be eligible.

Any donations to this project can be sent the Contact Center, 321 W. 3rd St., Suite B02, Yankton, SD 57078.

Those needing help with school supplies call ROCS-Rural Office of Community Services at 1-877-254-6110 for an application.

Event In Freeman To Support Relief

FREEMAN — People from communities scattered across southeast South Dakota and beyond will gather for a major daylong project to support worldwide relief projects titled "Sharing God's Gifts" on Saturday, July 25.

The South Dakota Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) Relief Sale will be held on the campus of Freeman Academy in Freeman. It will feature silent and live auctions and a variety of food booths and activities. All proceeds will go to Mennonite Central Committee, a global, nonprofit organization with support from Mennonite and Brethren in Christ congregations in North America. MCC strives to share God's love and compassion for all through relief, development and peace projects.

Here's a breakdown of events planned for July 25:

- 8 a.m. — Bike Race/Ride (12.5 miles)
- 8-10 a.m. — Pancake/sausage breakfast
- 9 a.m. — Silent Auction begins
- 9 a.m. — Booths open (crafts, bake sale, produce, etc.)
- 9-11:30 a.m. — Arboretum golf cart rides for those with difficulty walking
- 10 a.m. — Story Teller Norman Hofer (Sterling Hall)
- 11 a.m.-1 p.m. — Food Court open
- 12:30 p.m. — Live auction begins
- Visit the Heritage Hall Museum free of charge

Foods served at the noon meal include stewed beef, cheese pockets, sauerkraut, tamales, taco salad, fruit salad, spinach/strawberry salad, concessions with sloppy joes and hot dogs, pie, kuchen, ice cream bars and snow cones.

This is the 27th relief sale held in South Dakota, but this year it has a new home. After being held for 25 years in Sioux Falls — three years at the fairgrounds and 22 years at the Arena — the event known as Minn-Kota Festival took a two-year break to regroup and emerged as S.D. MCC Relief Sale in 2014. Wanting this to be a community event, the organizing committee chose the Freeman Community Center. But the event drew a crowd larger than expected and the facility was stretched to the limit.

After researching other options, the decision was made to hold it in Pioneer Hall on the Freeman Academy campus. This campus is well known for hosting the annual Schmeckfest activities each spring and is well suited for hosting the relief sale.

These 27 relief sales held in South Dakota have sent a grand total of nearly $2.5 million to MCC for its work around the world.

For more information about the sale, check the website at <http://sdmccreliefsale.weebly.com> or call 925-7009. More information about MCC can be found at <http://mcc.org>.

DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.

It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.
