Applications Being Accepted For Tax Refund Program

PIERRE — Applications are being accepted for a state program that provides once-a-year refunds of sales or property taxes to eligible senior citizens and disabled individuals in South Dakota.

Under the Sales and Property Tax Refund for Senior and Disabled Citizens, qualified applicants will receive refunds of sales or property taxes based on their income. Refund checks are issued beginning at the end of August. The program is funded through an annual appropriation from the South Dakota Legislature.

To be eligible for refunds, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be at least 66 years old on or before Jan. 1 of the current year OR be disabled during any part of the year.
- "Disabled" is defined as being qualified to receive Social Security Disability benefits, Supplemental Security

Disability benefits, or the individual is a veteran with a rated disability of 60 percent or higher.

- Must have been a South Dakota resident for the entire previous year
- Must meet annual income requirements. The 2009 income limit for a single-member household was $10,250; the limit for a multiple-member household was $13,250

Applications for the program are available from the Department of Revenue and Regulation's Property and Special Taxes Division or can be downloaded from the Department's website at <http://www.state.sd.us/drr2/for/propertytaxforms.htm>.

Applications will be accepted through July 1.

For more information, call the Department's toll-free helpline at 1-800-829-9188 and ask for the Division of Property and Special Taxes.

FIRE

Manager Doug Russell, Yankton Volunteer Fire Department President Troy Cowman and Kurtenbach. Also, a memorial to fallen firefighters will be dedicated during the proceedings. It was donated by Luken Memorials of Yankton.

"We would really like people to attend and see what they've paid for," Kurtenbach said. "Know that the volunteer firefighters and chief officers are extremely appreciative of the support they've given the project. We're ready to show it off to them."

James Steel of Yankton was awarded the construction contract for the $1.6 million project in December 2008 after Yankton voters approved a property tax opt-out to finance it. The architect for the project was Mannes Architects of Yankton.

Among the speakers scheduled for the dedication ceremony are Mayor Dave Knoff, City

Local Resident Graduates From St. Luke's College

Brook Hemmer of Sioux City, Iowa graduated on May 14, 2010 from St. Luke's College in Sioux City, Iowa receiving an Associate of Science Degree in Respiratory Care.
