FIRE

Yankton City Commissioner David Carda served on the building committee and spoke on behalf of his fellow commissioners during the ceremony. "I appreciate everything you do," he told the assembled firefighters. "You take time away from your families, your personal life, your jobs and put your lives at risk."

In addition to a blessing and dedication of the fire station itself, a blessing was held for a memorial to fallen firefighters that stands in front of the facility. It was donated by Luken Memorials of Yankton.

Work still continues on the facility, according to Kurtenbach.

"There are still things that need to be done with the building, and improvements we want to make," he said. "Any time you build something and you get in it, there are certain things you like to tweak."

One project being worked on is a backup dispatch center that would be available for emergency communications in the event that the one in the Yankton County Courthouse and Safety Center would become inoperable during a disaster.

Residents who toured the facility after the dedication seemed pleased with the final product.

"It's sure a lot better than what they had," said Myron Van Gerpen, who lives west of Yankton.

"It's excellent quality," added his wife, Muriel.

Jackley Warns Seniors Of Medicare Scam

PIERRE — Attorney General Marty Jackley is warning South Dakota seniors to be cautious of possible scams relating to the Medicare Prescription Drug Rebate program that is scheduled to begin this week. Many South Dakota seniors who fall into the Medicare Part D prescription drug coverage gap, known as the "doughnut hole" will begin receiving rebate checks for $250 to help with drug costs. The rebate check is part of the new health care law, which will help make prescription drugs more affordable for people in Medicare Part D.

The checks will be automatically sent to those who have paid more than $940 in out-of-pocket drug costs. Seniors should be cautious of scam artists who promise to deliver a check sooner if a fee is paid up front. They may also try to obtain personal financial information. There is no up-front fee for this rebate program. It is an automatic check that is sent directly from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to those who meet the requirements.

"This rebate program is a great opportunity for seniors to receive relief for prescription drug costs," said Jackley. "Seniors need to be cautious of any telemarketing calls, unsolicited emails or direct mail pieces that try to entice them into paying for this rebate."

If you have been a victim of this scam or need any additional information please call the Consumer Protection Division at 1-800-300-1986 or the Senior Medicare Patrol at 1-800-822-8804 or 1-800-695-8168.
