ISU Disappointed By Nebraska Decision

AMES, Iowa (AP) — Iowa State president Gregory Geoffroy said Friday he believes the future of the Big 12 is in the hands of the University of Texas.

Geoffroy, speaking to reporters in the wake of Colorado's departure to the Pac-10 and Nebraska's jump to the Big Ten, said that he thinks the Big 12 could survive if the Longhorns stick with the league.

"If the University of Texas were to decide that they want to be a member of the Big 12, then I'm confident the Big 12 would stay together," Geoffroy said. "If the University of Texas decides they do not wish to and wish to do something else, then I think the conference will be greatly altered."

Geoffroy and athletic director Jamie Pollard released a joint statement earlier Friday that said they were deeply disappointed by Colorado and Nebraska's pending departures from the Big 12.

The statement said the Big 12's members will discuss their options and potential initiatives over the next several days. It also said that while Iowa State will try to pursue action in its best interests, decisions made by other Big 12 members were beyond Iowa State's control.

STATE SOCCER CHAMPS

The Yankton Inferno U14 boys soccer team won the their division of the Classic Cup Division of the Kohl's/Midcontinent Cup state youth soccer tournament, played June 6-7 in Sioux Falls. Team members include (front) Derek Brenner, Ryan Olson, (middle) Trevor Rehurek, Jacob Hubbs, Patrick Weinandt, Alex Wieseler, Charlie Stephenson, John Dannenbring, Parker Kuchta, Spencer Schade, (back) coach Wes Chambers, Chipper Granflaten, Evan Greeneway, Brice Cowman, Landon Breen, Mason Strahl, Connor Chambers, Dylan Becker and coach Warren Brenner.

run-scoring single in the 11th inning.

He also had an RBI double and a two-run homer. His two-out single off Micah Owings (3-2) gave the Royals their first set of consecutive wins in June.

Victor Marte (1-0) escaped a two-on threat in the 10th. Joakim Soria retired Scott Rolen on a fly ball with runners on first and third to end it, getting his 15th save in 17 tries.

The Reds, who lead the majors with 12 wins in their final at-bat, stranded runners in scoring position in each of the last three innings.

Despite the loss, Cincinnati remained in first place in the NL Central. The Reds haven't led so late in a season since June 17, 2002, when they were playing at Cinergy Field.

INDIANS 7, NATIONALS 2: CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's Austin Kearns drove in four runs with two homers against his former team.

Travis Hafner also homered for Cleveland as manager Manny Acta won his first game against the team that fired him last July 13.

Jake Westbrook (4-3) gave up two runs over 7 1-3 innings and Chris Perez got his sixth save as Cleveland won for the fourth time in five games, depriving Washington of its first four-game winning streak.

Kearns hit a three-run shot off Luis Atilano (5-3) in the first inning. He hit the first pitch of the fourth for a 5-1 lead and his fourth multiple homer game, first since June 4, 2006, at Houston.

Atilano, a rookie, gave up six runs over five-plus innings, dropping to 4-1 in six road starts. All three first-inning runs he allowed were unearned due to an error by second baseman Adam Kennedy.

TIGERS 6, PIRATES 2: DETROIT (AP) — Brennan Boesch hit a solo shot in a three-run fourth inning and Ramon Santiago had a two-run homer in a three-run sixth for Detroit.

Justin Verlander (7-4) gave up two runs on four hits and matched a season high with four walks in seven-plus innings.

Ross Ohlendorf (0-4) allowed six runs — all with two outs — and 10 hits in six innings.

Both starters didn't give up a hit until the third, when Andrew McCutchen's RBI double put Pittsburgh ahead 1-0.

BOISE

West university presidents, shows Boise State has improved in both athletics and academic achievement, which he said is now on par with other schools in the conference. Another advantage for Boise State will be travel time. In the WAC, the team travels to Hawaii and Louisiana.

The Mountain West Conference is more concentrated. Boise State joins the Air Force Academy, Brigham Young, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, TCU, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming.

"I'm delighted we can offer our students-athletes, coaches and fans the very best competition with the most reasonable travel schedules," Kustra said, declining to weigh in on whether he thinks the Mountain West should pursue further additions.

But Dan Hawkins, head coach at Boise State until jumping to Colorado in 2006, said he doesn't think the Mountain West is done adding teams.

"We'll see how that whole thing shakes out and what happens to other teams in the Big 12," Hawkins said. "There might be some other teams from ... the Sun Belt, the Big 12, or somebody melded in there to complete the roster."

Thompson all but ruled out adding more teams from the WAC.
