Business Was Booming At Nebraska's Makin' Money Camp

Twenty-five youth from around northeast Nebraska proved they could be successful at their mini-entrepreneurial businesses during the Makin' Money Camps held recently in Wayne and Creighton. Participants came from Osmond, Carroll, Hader, Belden, Pilger, Brunswick, Oakdale, Elgin, Niobrara, Verdigre, Creighton, Wayne, and Laurel.

Each camper joined one or more others to form a business that produced and sold scrapbooking kits, gourd birdhouses, brownie mix or tin can yard art. Local customers at the Camp Marketplace were all good shoppers and each business sold out of product. Their prices reflected what they needed to cover the cost of their bank loans, interest, supplies, and advertising while still providing a profit. Right after the Marketplace event they met with their banker to discuss business issues and repay their loans. Downtown business tours were held to introduce participants to local entrepreneurs and learn from them about real life situations. In Wayne they visited Snakey Jake's Pizza, Wayne Greenhouse, Moments Photography, International Stone Works, Gemstone, and the Coffee Shop. During the Creighton camp they toured Largen Manufacturing, Grand Central Café, Gragert's Grocery Store, and A Special Place.

There's still time to sign-up for the Stanton Camp which will be held at the county fairgrounds July 1 and 2. Registration deadline is June 23rd to the UNL extension office in Stanton at 402-439-2231 or the Northeast Nebraska Resource Conservation and Development (RC&D) Council at 402-582-4866.

Then, at 9:30 p.m. at Chief White Crane Recreation Area, the lantern hike will begin. Travelling along the Chief White Crane Trail, participants will learn about the wildlife and nature of the night.

Along with this weekend's special events, the South Dakota State Parks also continues its Junior Naturalists program for kids ages 7-12. To earn a Junior Naturalists badge, kids must attend five programs and do some activities with their parents.

"They learn about amphibians, plants, leaves and bugs," Kallis said. "Sign up for Homestead Days and the hike, and two of those five are taken care of in one day."

The Junior Naturalists program will continue on Fridays and Saturdays all summer. This weekend's program line-up is appropriate for all ages.
