MILITARY

LUKE NEUMANN

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — The Naval Academy's Summer STEM Program is an overnight academic camp designed for rising 8th-11th grade students in good academic standing who have an interest in math and science. Approximately 375 students from around the U.S. have been selected to participate in this summer's STEM program.

Luke Neumann, a student at Yankton High School in Yankton, will participate in the U.S. Naval Academy's Summer STEM Program.

The STEM Program gives students the opportunity to experience real-life applications of math and science principles through hands-on practical learning. Students will learn from distinguished Naval Academy professors in world-class lab facilities that provide a unique learning environment outside the traditional classroom. The Academy's current students, known as Midshipmen, help run the Summer STEM Program and act as counselors and tutors to students.

For more information about the Summer STEM Program and the application process, visit www.usna.edu/admissions or call (410) 293-4361. Questions from reporters and editors can be directed to the USNA Media Relations Department at (410) 293-2292.

LT. COL. KEVIN CALLIES

Air National Guard Lt. Col. Kevin K. Callies is supporting the mission of Operation Unified Response, an international disaster relief effort underway in Haiti following the 7.0 magnitude earthquake that ravaged the Caribbean nation on January 12. The focus of the mission is to alleviate the suffering of survivors and support humanitarian relief efforts. U.S. military servicemembers' operations are in support of the U.S. Agency for International Development, the government agency responsible for overseeing the relief efforts.

U.S. military members transport, deliver and distribute food, water, and medical aid. They are involved with port operations and rehabilitation, air operations, airfield management, security, engineering, logistics and structure assessments. They also provide humanitarian aid and disaster relief efforts to orphans and children whose parents and families were lost in the earthquake's devastation.

Callies, a resource branch director and comptroller is normally assigned to the 114th Fighter Wing, Joe Foss Field Air Guard Station, Sioux Falls. The colonel has served in the military for 33 years.

He is the father of Kevin and Sarah Callies of Heatherwood Circle, Brandon, and the stepson of Hazel Hamilton of Howard.

His wife, Joyce, is the daughter of Clinton and Olinda Fuerst of Tripp.

The colonel graduated in 1977 Howard High School, and received bachelor of science in 1988 National College, Sioux Falls.

Leadership Award Given To Local Volunteer

The JA Worldwide® Headquarters in Colorado Springs, CO has honored Jeral Gross of First National Bank South Dakota for his outstanding service and support to Junior Achievement of Yankton's economic education efforts. Jeral was recently presented with the JA Worldwide Bronze Leadership Award at the JA Yankton board retreat.

The Bronze Leadership Award recognizes superior leadership and support for Junior Achievement. Jeral has served as the Board Chair, Fund Drive Chair and he has been an active volunteer in the classroom.

"We are proud to have Jeral as part of our team and appreciate his dedication and guidance. His commitment and leadership to JA of Yankton has been invaluable," said Kristie Feigen, President of Junior Achievement of South Dakota, Inc.

Junior Achievement of Yankton provided traditional programming in 33 public and private classrooms and reached over 700 students during the 2009-10 school year. In addition, 15 executive-level volunteers impacted over 200 high school students with ethics education through JA Excelling through Ethics. Across South Dakota, JA volunteers impacted over 43,000 students in the 2009-10 school year. These classroom volunteers served as role models and used hands-on activities to teach young people about financial literacy, entrepreneurship, and work readiness.

Junior Achievement is the world's largest organization dedicated to inspiring and preparing young people to succeed in a global economy. Through a dedicated volunteer network, Junior Achievement provides in-school and after-school programs for students which focus on three key content areas: work readiness, entrepreneurship, and financial literacy. Today, 126 individual area operations reach more than four million students in the United States, with an additional five million students served by operations in 122 other countries worldwide. For more information, visit www.ja.org.
