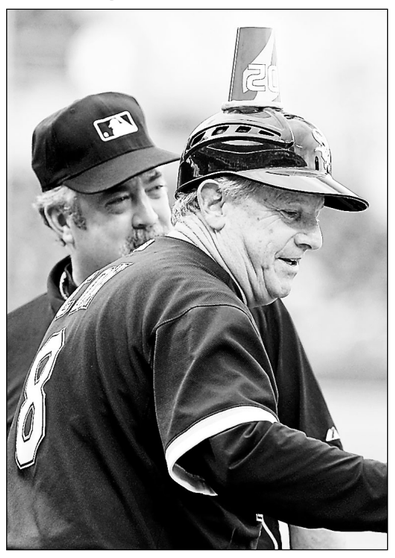
Hidden Cup Trick



White Sox third base coach Jeff Cox (8) was the brunt of a joke by the team as he delivered the lineup with a cup attached to his helmet before Chicago's game against the Kansas City Royals, Monday at Kauffman Stadium in Kansas City, Missouri. (John Sleezer/Kansas City Star/MCT) seats, however, in the announced crowd of 18,073.

Nolasco (7-6) struck out nine and walked none. He allowed four hits, including two homers by Jason Bay.

Florida took control with a four-run rally in the third, started by Nolasco's leadoff double.

Dickey (6-1) had won six consecutive starts before getting tagged for five runs and five hits over five innings in this one.

REDS 7, PHILLIES 3: CINCINNATI (AP) — Scott Rolen hit his 300th homer and Johnny Cueto pitched eight strong innings, leading Cincinnati over Philadelphia.

The Reds won for the sixth time in seven games, keeping them atop the NL Central. It's the latest they have been in first place since 1999.

Rolen hit a two-run shot in the fourth off Kyle Kendrick (4-3) and added a sacrifice fly.

Cueto (8-2) retired only two batters the previous time he faced the Phillies last July 6, setting the Reds on course for a 22-1 drubbing that was the worst in franchise history. This time, he allowed six hits and one run.

The Phillies lost for the second time in seven games.

CARDINALS 6, DIAMONDBACKS 5: ST. LOUIS (AP) — Arizona's defense collapsed in the ninth inning, with two throwing errors allowing three runs to score in St. Louis' victory.

Relief pitcher Aaron Heilman (2-2) threw wildly to third base trying to catch the lead runner on pinch-hitter Adam Wainwright's sacrifice bunt and one run scored on the play.

First baseman Adam LaRoche bobbled the ball before uncorking a throw in the dirt in an attempt to prevent the tying run from scoring on Skip Schumaker's RBI groundout. Wainwright continued around to score the winning run from second with a slide.

Jason Motte (3-2) allowed Mark Reynolds' two-run homer in the eighth and worked out of a two-out, two-on jam in the ninth.

Diamondbacks starter Dan Haren hit a go-ahead homer in the seventh off Chris Carpenter and shut down the Cardinals until getting pulled after Yadier Molina and Brendan Ryan singled to open the ninth.

Haren hit his second career homer to straightaway center off Carpenter and is batting .435 with seven RBIs.

PIRATES 2, CUBS 1: CHICAGO (AP) — Paul Maholm pitched a season-high eight innings, Jose Tabata hit a go-ahead double in the ninth and Pittsburgh ended a 17-game road losing streak with a win over Chicago.

The last time the Pirates won on the road was May 25 in a 2-1 victory at Cincinnati. It was their third win in 21 games overall.

The Cubs dropped to 2-8 against last-place Pittsburgh this season and are 10 games below .500.

Maholm (5-6) allowed one run and seven hits. He did not walk a batter.

Octavio Dotel hit Aramis Ramirez with a pitch leading off the ninth but rebounded for his 15th save in 18 chances.

Andrew Cashner (0-2) took the loss.

Before the game, Carlos Zambrano was placed on the restricted list and the Cubs expect to be without the hot-tempered pitcher until at least the All-Star break.

ASTROS 9, BREWERS 5: MILWAUKEE (AP) — Pedro Feliz's RBI double gave Houston the lead in the seventh inning, capping a comeback from an early deficit and helping the Astros beat Milwaukee.

Houston trailed by four runs after two innings but got three to tie the game in the sixth, then added a pair in the seventh on Feliz's double and an RBI single by Jason Bourgeois.

Corey Hart had three hits and two RBIs for Milwaukee, while Ryan Braun hit his 11th home run. But the Astros' bullpen held the Brewers scoreless from the fourth inning on.

Milwaukee had won six of its last seven.

It was a big night for Houston's Michael Bourn, who had four hits, including his first home run of the season in the third and an RBI single in the sixth.

Gustavo Chacin (1-0) pitched a scoreless sixth to earn the win. Todd Coffey (2-2) took utive win; the last loss to Chile was 3-0 in a 2000 qualifier for the 2002 World Cup.

Brazil has now reached the quarterfinals of the World Cup every time since the 1990 tournament in Italy, when it fell 1-0 to Diego Maradona's Argentina in the second round. Brazil coach Dunga and assistant coach Jorginho were starters in that Brazilian team.

The Brazilians won the 1994 and 2002 World Cups in that span.

NETHERLANDS 2, SLOVAKIA 1: DURBAN, South Africa (AP) — The Netherlands reached the final eight when standouts Arjen Robben and Wesley Sneijder scored in each half of a 2-1 victory over Slovakia.

The Oranje, who have never won soccer's biggest prize, went ahead in the 18th minute when Robben cut inside from the right wing and found the net with a low, precise shot from 20 yards. Robben sat out the first two group matches with a hamstring injury, but his return has rekindled the crafty Dutch offense.

Sneijder doubled the lead into an empty net in the 84th after a gamble by Slovak goalkeeper Jan Mucha backfired.

Netherlands goalkeeper Maarten Stekelenburg preserved the win with two key saves in the 67th and the Dutch extended their team-record unbeaten streak to 23 games. Robert Vittek scored on a last-second penalty kick for Slovakia, then rushed to the net to retrieve the ball, only to hear the final whistle.

together," Rodriguez said. "We figured if we put in a few more quality at-bats we'd be right in the game. And Cooper was on his game tonight, and he didn't allow us to do that."

Cooper had also been solid in two previous CWS appearances. He allowed three runs on six hits and a walk over five innings in a 4-3 loss to Oklahoma. He came back to allow one run on four hits in 5 2-3 innings in a rematch with the Sooners, but got a no-decision in a 3-2, 12-inning victory.

greater than this stage. It's wonderful. The television coverage, the city of Omaha, the people that come watch games at Rosenblatt. It just doesn't get any better."

SHORT HOPS: South Carolina players and coaches and the rest of the team's travel contingent got a rude awakening when the fire alarm at their hotel went off at about 1:30 a.m. Monday. Firefighters found no fire. Evacuated hotel guests were allowed to re-enter the downtown Embassy Suites after about 20 minutes. ... Eleven participants in the 1950 CWS championship game — nine from Texas and two from Washington State — were introduced before Monday's game. Texas beat the Cougars 3-0 in the first CWS final played at Rosenblatt Stadium. ... South Carolina is attempting to become the first team since Oregon State in 2006 to come back from losing its first game in Omaha to win the national championship. Southern California in 1998 is the only other team to do it since the two-bracket system started in 1988. ... If UCLA wins, it will join the school's softball team as a national champion — the first time that has happened in NCAA history.
