Michels is not the only prominent person taking part in Christ Church's anniversary weekend. Bishop John Tarrant of the Episcopal Diocese of Sioux Falls will deliver the sermon at the June 26 worship service, Boyles said.

Christ Church's history actually pre-dates the diocese, Boyles said. "Calvary Cathedral (in Sioux Falls), where the bishop has his church, was built in 1874," she said. "Christ Episcopal was already 13 years old at the time, and there was no (Episcopal) diocese in South Dakota."

Hoyt and congregants gathered in a small village on the Missouri River for its first worship service on June 30, 1861. What was first called "St. John's Church" grew and developed with that new settlement named "Yankton" after the Dakota native people of the region.

The early members included Grant Marsh, the steamboat captain for the Coulson line, Boyles said.

The church now has approximately 300 members from about 125 families, she said.

Based on early registration, about 50 to 60 former members from across the nation plan to attend next week's celebration, Boyles said. The parish also expects former priests and Hoyt family members to attend.

The weekend will premier Rob O'Dell's video "The Mother Church of the Dakotas," Boyles said.

"It's about 30 minutes long and includes much of the early history," she said. "I think he did a wonderful job. I am really pleased."

The following is a schedule for Christ Church's celebration:

JUNE 24

The weekend opens with registration, visiting and light refreshments at the church from 4-7 p.m. The evening program features a welcome at 7 p.m. and premiere of the video "The Mother Church of the Dakotas" at 7:15 p.m. The gathering ends with evening prayer at 8:15 p.m.

The celebration continues with registration and with church tours, for the public, on the hour from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The anniversary choir, under director Norm Wright, will rehearse at 3:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

The banquet will be held at the Riverfront Events Center, opening with the social hour and video replay at 5:30 p.m. The dinner begins at 6:30 p.m., followed by the program featuring Lt. Gov. Michels at 7:30 p.m.

JUNE 26

The weekend celebration concludes with the Holy Eucharist and anniversary service at 10:15 a.m. at Christ Church. The service is followed by a catered barbecue picnic at noon on the church grounds.

get a look at this year's T-shirt design from Tyler Kraft. T-shirts should be available soon for this year's poster contest winner.

A big "thank you" needs to go out to the Optimist Club for announcing the Captain and Belle and all the winners in the poster contest at the baseball game in May. Another big thank you to everyone involved at CorTrust Bank and JJBent's for sponsoring this year's poster contest.

Old Iron & Associates have been finalizing their plans for Riverboat Days 2011 and have once again worked hard to give tractor enthusiasts something new to see. They have invited an antique tractor club down to show their unique tractors, as well as showing log-splitting in three ways. You'll want to make sure you set aside some time to visit this area of the park during this year's festival!

For the first time in 23 years, there is a change to the Riverboat Days PRCA Pro-Rodeo. This year, Extreme Bull Riding will take place at 7:30 p.m. Saturday Aug. 20, and will take the place of both rodeos. Thirty-five to forty bulls and bull riders will take part in the event and put themselves to the ultimate test to show the crowd, the bulls, and the other riders what they are made. Tickets will be available for purchase at Hy-Vee, Larry's Heating and Cooling and Western Trails.

Feel free to check our website to get the latest on the schedule, list of events and performers, enter yourself in the parade held on Saturday or view any of the other highlights: www.riverboatdays.com. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at the Riverboat Days Office at 665-1657 or drop me an email at office@riverboatdays.com.

From all of us on the board — Bonnie Pinkelman, Chad Miller, Chop Johnson (Co-Chair), John Kraft (Co-Chair), Cliff Madson, Dick Hunhoff, Donna Madson, Mike Gullikson, Nancy Teachout, Randy Oliver, Rich Andre, Rick Stone, and Troy Whitley — have a peaceful June. Remember to mark your calendars for Riverboat Days 2011, Aug. 19-21.
