DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press and Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.

It is the policy of the Press and Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

six years as a county commissioner.

"I think Congress is broken," he said.

Barth gained attention in the final weeks of the campaign with an Internet video nearly five minutes long that showed him walking down a wooded path, walking past props as he talked bluntly about Congress' failure to cut spending and solve other problems. When he mentioned Noem, he walked past a nicely dressed mannequin. When he talked about his military service, he stopped and shot a rifle.

Bob Burns, a retired political science professor at South Dakota State University, said Democrats will have a tough time defeating Noem because Republicans have a big edge in registered voters and have dominated statewide races in recent years.

"It is an uphill battle for a Democrat to win a statewide race in

Thune Staffer To Visit Yankton County

Sen. John Thune announced that his Economic Development Advisor, Benjamin Ready, will hold an outreach day in Yankton County on June 11.

"These outreach days allow communities and individuals to update my staff on economic development initiatives and other activities taking place in the region. There are many reasons South Dakota is a great place for people to live and do business, and I rely on this important input to help me do my job better each day and serve the needs and interests of the people I represent," Thune said.

Ready will also attend the Avera Sacred Heart Northern Lights Project ground breaking.

Residents who would like to visit with Ready may set up appointments by calling Sen. Thune's Sioux Falls office at 605-334-9596.

Thanks to everyone who helped make my 85th Birthday a great one!

high name recognition within the community.

Van Osdel said he is very pleased with the results. He said that he now plans on meeting as many people as possible before the November general election.

"It is very complimentary when people go to the voting booth and cast a ballot for me," Van Osdel added.

In the state House race, Stotz collected 738 votes for about 35 percent, followed by Stevens with 710 votes for about 33 percent. Matt Stone was third with 586 votes for about 27 percent, while Thomas Bixler collected 98 votes for about 4.6 percent.

Stotz said he is thankful for the other candidates who were willing to put their names on the ballot and is looking forward to competing later this fall.

He said the campaign this fall will take a lot more work than the primary election did.
