CANISTOTA (AP) — Three seasons and 71 games later, Canistota's amateur baseball team finally ended its losing streak. The Rebels snapped the slide by beating Humboldt-Hartford 7-0 during the first game of a home doubleheader this past weekend. Manager Randy Townshend said the team didn't celebrate pitcher Corey Struck's shutout too much, as players had to prepare for Sunday's nightcap. "You just want to keep your composure because you have another game to play, basically," Townshend told KJAM radio this week. "You don't want to show up the other team, basically, because it could come back to haunt you."

The subdued vibe apparently paid off, as Canistota hung on to win a wild second game 20-10. The team improved to 2-5 in the Class B Corn Belt League this season — the first time the Rebels have climbed out of the cellar since re-forming in 2009 after an absence of about a decade.

South Dakota's Class B teams ditched aluminum bats in favor of wood bats this season, and Townshend says his players love once again hearing the crack of the wood instead of the hollow ping.

Many baseball leagues around the country have transitioned back to wooden bats in recent years, for reasons including tradition and safety.

Class A amateur teams already had been playing exclusively with wooden bats, and commissioners last fall approved the move for Class B teams.

Yankton's Guthmiller Leads AGJA Junior Tourney

EAST MOLINE, Ill. — Yankton native Jace Guthmiller leads after the first of three rounds in the American Junior Golf Association's Junior Tournament at Quad Cities. The AJGA Junior at Quad Cities is a 54-hole stroke play event conducted by the American Junior Golf Association at the Short Hills Country Club in East Moline, Ill. The tournament field consists of 35 girls and 96 boys, ages 12-18, from Ontario and Brazil and 23 states, including 48 from Illinois. The Boys Division played the par-72 course 6,694 yards and the Girls Division played at 6,123 yards.

"I like the course," Guthmiller said. "I played really well. I hit a lot of greens, and you can't really go wrong when you do that. Hopefully I can do well the rest of the week."

Kyle Sterbinsky of Yardley, Pa., and Andrew Bieber of Shaker Heights, Ohio, are tied for second at 3-under-par 69. Joe Willis of Lake Forest, Ill., sits in fourth with a 2-under-par 70. Rounding out the top five in a three-way tie for fifth is Ryan Medhaug of Veblen, S.D., Sean Kozak of Algonquin, Ill., and Sameer Kalia of Campbellville, Ontario at 1-under-par 71.

In the Girls Division, Julie Yang of Apache Junction, Ariz., has a commanding lead heading into the second round. After finishing the front nine 1-over-par 37, she countered on the back nine with three birdies and five pars. When she was 13 years old, she won the John Deere Classic Junior Open at the Glyns Creek Golf Course in Long Grove, Iowa. Now 16 years old and coming back off of tours throughout Europe, she is looking to stay composed and steady through the rest of the championship.

SDSU's Waytashek Granted Injury Hardship

BROOKINGS — After missing significant playing time each of her first two seasons, South Dakota State University wing Megan Waytashek has been granted an injury hardship. Summit League officials ruled recently. "We've exceeded Megan's position was approved," Jackrabbits head coach Aaron Johnston said. "All of our student-athletes' time on the court is very precious and it is good to know Megan will have a chance to further enjoy her basketball experience."

A native of Lino Lakes, Minn., Waytashek will have three years of eligibility remaining. Waytashek played in 16 games with one start during her freshman season before suffering a season-ending knee injury in January 2011. She was averaging 4.3 points and 2.8 rebounds per game prior to her injury.

During the 2011-12 season, Waytashek was limited to action in six games, contributing 2.2 points and 2.2 rebounds per game.

SEC Stages Welcoming Party For Missouri, Texas A&M

ATLANTA (AP) — It's not often Texas A&M fans in Georgia have the chance to pose for photos with Reville VIII, the collie mascot.

It's a similar rarity to see Missouri mascot Truman the Tiger high-stepping through the halls of an Atlanta hotel. LSU? Auburn? No, this is a different cat.

Southeastern Conference commissioner Mike Slive and the SEC held an official welcoming party for Missouri and Texas A&M, only three months before the Tigers and Aggies open their first football schedules as members of the conference.

Slive noted that Atlanta hosts the SEC championship game. He said for one night, the city "is Missouri and Texas A&M and we welcome you all to Atlanta and the Southeastern Conference."

RB Aaron Green Transferring To TCU From Nebraska

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Tailback Aaron Green is transferring to TCU, where he will have to sit out the upcoming season after playing last year as a freshman at Nebraska.

TCU announced the addition of Green on Wednesday, just more than a month after Cornhusker coach Bo Pelini gave the running back from San Antonio permission to transfer.

Green will have three seasons of eligibility with the Horned Frogs, beginning in 2013.

In 12 games for the Cornhuskers last season, Green ran for 105 yards and two touchdowns.

Orioles Sign Moyer To 49-Year-Old Minor-League Deal

BOSTON (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles signed 49-year-old left-hander Jamie Moyer to a minor-league deal Wednesday, and assigned him to Triple-A Norfolk.

The Colorado Rockies released Moyer at the end of last month, a little over a month after he became the oldest pitcher to win as a starter.

Moyer is expected to start for Norfolk on Saturday against Buffalo.

On April 17, Moyer earned the win with the Rockies in
