4-H Conference Set For R.C.

BROOKINGS — The ninth annual South Dakota Character Education Conference is set for June 14-15 in Rapid City. It will take place at the Ramkota Inn and Convention Center in Rapid City.

To take part, contact 4-H Youth Character Education Field Specialist, Karelyn Farrand at karelyn.farrand@sdstate.edu or call (605)626-2870.

The SDSU Extension 4-H and Youth Development CHARACTER COUNTS! ® Program staff will host the conference. The central theme of the event is "Climate of Character: Are You Thriving?" The conference will address how to build a welcoming, safe and positive environment in your school, youth organization or work setting.

"If our schools and youth organizations are able to establish an environment that is built on being welcoming, positive and safe the youth of our communities will thrive and be both academically and socially successful," said Karelyn Farrand, 4-H Character Education Field Specialist.

Keynote speaker Stu Cabe will open the conference on June 14. Cabe is a specialist in developing positive school climate. Founder of the Ovation Company, Cabe's keynote address "Be Nice" is simple and to the point. His general session will address "Helping Our Students Break the Habit."

"We at The Ovation Company believe there are no bad students, just students with bad habits," Cabe said. "This session is designed to help participants learn how to assist their students in breaking negative character habits."

On June 15, Randy Hagen will share two presentations. Hagen is an Educator, Coach, and co-author of "Success Perfect." His insightful presentations on "Developing the Excellence in Others" and Unleashing the Champion," will confirm that success is never a result of chance but a result of the choices one makes every day.

Hagen's powerful philosophy on coaching, teaching and life will not only give attendees tools for success, but will give them the confidence that they can live life "Like a Champion Every Day!"

On June 15, conference participants are invited to share a character education Best Practice display from their school, organization or community. The conference will include breakout sessions on a wide variety of topics including classroom strategies, involving community, bullying, diversity, team building, and more. Participants will also be able to visit vendors.

The conference is approved for 1 SDSU Graduate Credit.

A pre-conference session is set for June 13 from 1-6 p.m. at the convention center. This pre-conference is open to parents, teachers and community members. The training focuses on the history and background of the CHARACTER COUNTS! program, including activities connected to the program's Six Pillars of Character®. This training also includes discussion on ethical decision-making and building partnerships.

Youth Sought For Beef Ambassador Contest

PIERRE — South Dakota youth interested in promoting the state's beef industry and improving their own presentation skills are encouraged to participate in the 2012 South Dakota Beef Ambassador Contest.

The contest, to be held July 26 at the Crossroads Hotel and Huron Event Center, will select a winner to move onto the national level and provide participating youth with the skills and information needed to educate consumers and fellow students about beef nutrition, food safety & stewardship practices of the beef industry.

Sponsored by the South

Dakota Beef Industry Council (SDBIC), the S.D. Beef Ambassador Contest will be held the evening before the South Dakota Summer Spotlight Show in Huron, an event focused on showcasing youth livestock exhibitors.

This year's S.D. Beef Ambassador Contest will involve three age divisions: beginner (ages 8-11), junior (ages 12-16), and senior (ages 17-20). Senior contestants must be 17 but not over 20 years old by Sept. 1, 2013. Senior and junior contestants will be judged in four categories: media interview; consumer beef promotion; letter to the editor; and personal interview. Youth in the beginners' division will be judged solely on a 3-5 minute presentation. They will also be welcome to watch the junior and senior competitive events.

The winner of the senior division will receive $500 and all-expense-paid trip to the National Beef Ambassador contest in the fall of 2013. The winning junior division contestant goes home with $200 cash, while the top beginner contestant receives $50. All participants in the contest receive cash prizes.

To find out more about the S.D. Beef Ambassador Contest, including a registration form, rules and regulations, go to sd-beef.org. The registration deadline is July 13. To find more about the National Beef Ambassador program go to national-beefambassador.org. You can also contact SDBIC Director of Nutrition and Consumer Information Holly Sweet at 605-957-5283, or hswhee@sdbeef.org, or 2011 SD Beef Ambassador Courtney Nolz, at 605-999-7036, or courtney_nolz22@hotmail.com.

The S.D. Beef Ambassador Contest is funded in part by South Dakota beef producers through the checkoff program.

REUNIONS

FEJFAR REUNION

Fejfar family to have a family reunion at noon on Sunday, June 17, with a catered Dinner at 1 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall 2700 Broadway, Yankton.

Frantisek S. Fejfar and Franciska (Svatos) immigrated to the United States from the Czech Republic in 1869. They homesteaded on some land about 10 miles west of Yankton, a portion of that land was later developed as the town of Janousek.

They had 8 children: Anna Francis(Vinatieri), Lenora, Christina(died at sea) Katherine(died at about age 6), Joseph, George, Marie, John, and Anton.

BIRTHS

EDEN VOGT

Kregg and Kristal Vogt of Yankton announce the birth of their daughter Eden Harper Vogt, born May 26, 2012 at 4:50 p.m. She weighed 8 pounds 10 ounces and was 20 1/2 inches long.

Grandparents are Donald and Barbara Vogt of Taylors Falls, Minn. and Dale and Wanda Jansen of Yankton.

Great-grandparents are Clarence and Angela Jansen of Fordyce, Neb.

We, the descendants of those children, are going to have a get-together and enjoy the day. Many of the Fejfars have a musical background, so this year we are going to reflect on that and invite any and all members to bring their musical talents and instruments to entertain us.

All Fejfar descendants and their families are invited to attend.

For more information, call Bill Fejfar, 605-660-1200.
